McNamara Avers Viet Nam Is Key To Asia's Future

Hanoi Charges 'Provocation'

SAIGON (UPI) — North Viet Nam charged today that four U.S. and South Vietnamese warships shelled a coastal installation today and were driven off in a battle with Communist patrol boats. It called the alleged intrusion a serious provocation.

The Communist broadcast came as a strong show of force by Vietnamese troops smashed a guerrilla offensive in the Mekong delta 35 miles southwest of Saigon. U.S. Army helicopters flew in troops and a battalion of Viet Cong broke and fled.

The United States virtually completed its evacuation of 1,819 American dependents today with the departure of Mrs. Maxwell D. Taylor, wife of the ambassador, and 15 others. The last 15 are to fly home tomorrow.

The British Embassy today advised British, Canadian, New Zealand and Irish citizens to Report Cites Nuclear Risk

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said today the United States must continue its struggle to halt Red expansion in Asia and has little choice but to make its stand in South Viet Nam.

In a statement prepared for delivery before the House Armed Services Committee, he described the situation in Viet Nam as "grave but by no means hopeless."

McNamara's strong stand on Viet Nam highlighted a wide-ranging review of world affairs which also spelled out American conditions for a NATO nuclear force and conceded that Red China "in time" could produce ballistic missiles with hydrogen warheads.

But for the near future, McNamara said, he doubted that the Red Chinese would start overt aggression against their neighbors because they had shown "great caution when

Tam Unification Vote Set Again For April

Deadlock Is Broken On Overall Election

By FRANK FARRARA

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization voted 6-5 last night to resubmit to the voters a proposal for overall unification of the Tamalpais High School District area.

The proposal, which would unify 11 elementary school districts and the high school district was defeated by the voters last June, 16,192 "no" to 14,582 "yes."

PUBLIC HEARING

Committee members also called for an election on the proposal April 20, the same day as school trustee elections.

The decision was made after public hearings on overall unification and two-way unification before about 325 persons at Tamalpais High School.

As soon as the hearings ended at about 11:30 p.m., the committee went into a regular meeting.

FEELINGS SHOW

The outcome became evident before the vote when committee members expressed their feelings and six indicated they favored putting the overall plan to the voters again.

Committee members have deadlocked 5-5 in the past on the issue, but this was broken when Roy Parks of Tomales, who had voted for three-district unification last fall, said he felt the people should have a chance to vote again on total unification.

The vote on re-submitting the overall unification proposal to the voters was:

Against—Mrs. Watson M. Conner, Mrs. Rulon E. Brown, Dr. John Hamren, David D. Ring, and chairman Earl Marshall.

TO PUBLIC

After the vote, Marshall said it was unfortunate "we have disagreed to extent we do, and unfortunately your division will be carried to the public."

Marshall said he thought the issue "will generate a severe fight on the part of the people in the Tamalpais High School District." He urged committee members "to make certain it doesn't create the type of split

State Aid Claims 'Bare Bones' Budget Hides $41 Million 'Fat'

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislative Analyst A. Alan Post suggested today that $123.83 million be trimmed from Gov. Brown's proposed $4.03 billion "bare-bones" budget.

Post said if the legislature accepted all of his suggested cutbacks "there would be no need this year for tax increases. However, tax boosts would be necessary the following year."

The suggested reductions, Post said, "reflect the deepest cut in the budget that I can remember." Analyses of the budget have been prepared by his office since 1943.

Social welfare, higher education, mental hygiene and public health were the areas hardest hit by the recommended reductions, which will be ruled on by legislative committees.

Last year's report called for $16.6 million to be trimmed from the current budget.

The analyst's report this year was presented in two phases.

First, Post recommended that $41.4 million be sliced from the budget by better use of manpower and more efficient operation of various agencies. This cutback could be made, Post said, without any serious damage to existing services.

Second, he suggested another $82.4 million could be cut by a change in state laws and policies, if lawmakers desired.

"This second section," Post said, "gives legislators an opportunity to study many ways of saving."

The analyst emphasied that the $41.4 million cut was a definite recommendation to the legislature, while the second section was only a suggestion.

When asked if his staff had found some fat on Brown's "bare-bones" budget, Post answered, "We found $41.4 million worth . . ."

Post proposed that social welfare spending be axed by $19.67 million with the control of expenditures returned to the legislature.

Post wants a so-called "closed-end" system of expenditures for welfare. This means that a definite appropriation would be made for welfare, which is contrary to current practice. The administration would be empowered to ask for emergency funds if demand rose above the budgeted figure.

The legislative analyst also concentrated on the University

Race Riots Surge Through Brooklyn

NEW YORK (UPI) — A mob of 300 Negro teen-agers swarmed through downtown Brooklyn smashing store fronts and terrorizing shoppers today in the second consecutive day of New York City racial rioting.

The screaming youngsters hurled a trash can through the front of a crowded restaurant and attacked badly outnumbered police officers.

Five of the youngsters jumped one officer, knocked him to the ground and stomped him.

There was no immediate word on how many persons were injured.

The riot began as a peaceful protest at the New York City Board of Education offices in downtown Brooklyn and grew into a howling mob when the demonstrators surged through police lines and headed for nearby St. John's University where fighting occurred yesterday between the Negro demonstrators and white college students.

Mounted policemen rushed ahead and turned the mob. Then the rioters headed for a nearby public school filled with students who are not participating in the anti-segregation boycott.

Again police rushed ahead and turned back the demonstrators with night sticks.

Patricia Neal Suffers Stroke

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Academy Award winning actress Patricia Neal underwent surgery today at the UCLA Medical Center after suffering a stroke.

A spokesman at Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studio where Miss Neal was working on a picture said the actress was stricken last night.

The spokesman said she suffered the first of two strokes after returning home from work yesterday on the movie "Seven Women."

Her condition was listed as serious.

The 39-year-old actress was born in Packard, Ky., but in recent years has lived in London with her English husband Raoul Dahl, a short story writer.

The couple has four children.

Johnson Wooing Business To Plug U.S. Gold Outflow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson appealed to business leaders today "to join hands with me in a voluntary partnership" and help attack the gold-dollar drain by slashing investment and lending abroad.

Johnson, who called 370 industrialists and bankers to the White House to discuss the country's balance-of-payments problem, said in remarks prepared for the session:

"I want you to go back to your offices and call in your comptrollers and your vice presidents. I want you to ask them to consult every time they face a decision that involves sending money abroad. And I count on you to cut those outflows to the bone."

"We have to deal head-on with the surging outflow of private capital" that is contributing to the dollar-weakening balance-of-payments deficit, he said.

Johnson noted that the flow of private capital to other countries increased by $2 billion last year. The entire payments deficit last year was $3 billion.

Noting that $2 billion of American-owned money is banked overseas to earn an interest advantage of a fraction of one per cent, Johnson said:

"For every million dollars of this drain on our balance of payments, you are earning an after-tax return of approximately $2,500 a year. I ask you to balance this small gain against the nation's loss."

The President, who was holding in reserve a threat to propose legislation curbing capital outflows, should this voluntary program fail, said, "as President, I pledge whatever actions prove necessary to keep our economy strong and our dollar sound."

Corte Madera Town Manager Brandow Quits

Corte Madera Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow Jr. has notified the town council he will leave April 1 to become city administrator of Belmont.

Brandow, 42, of 17 Blue Rock Court, Corte Madera, will leave a $12,888 a year job for one paying $15,000, and a city of about 7,900 population for one with 20,900 people.

He was selected from among 46 applicants for the post in Belmont, where he will replace John Watts, who resigned in October to take charge of the apprenticeship program for the Carpenters Union.

Brandow said last night before leaving for a city managers' convention in Sacramento that the move was a step up in his profession.

Corte Madera Mayor Edward W. Colthurst today agreed. "I knew for the last two or three years we couldn't hang onto him," Colthurst said.

Brandow's nine and one-half years of service is the longest of any incumbent city manager or city administrator in Marin County. Next in seniority is Dan E. Andersen, who became city

McGraw-Hill Sets $2.4-Million Job

McGraw-Hill Inc. has taken out county building permits for two buildings totaling $2,400,000 at its new regional location on a 106-acre site just outside Novato.

The permits are for an office building costing $700,000 and a warehouse costing $1,700,000.

The Novato installation will replace that now at Fifer Industrial Park in Corte Madera and will include other facilities of McGraw-Hill's book publishing business now housed in San Francisco and elsewhere.

Budget Critic Feels Inflationary Trend

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown calls his $4.03 billion budget "bare-bones," but Legislative Analyst A. Alan Post's recommendations for reductions don't fit that definition.

Last year, Post's analysis of the budget was 877 pages long; this year, it's 1,111 pages in length.

Supervisors Assn. Against At-Large Idea

I-J Special Report

NAPA — The North Coast County Supervisors Assn. went on record today against election of supervisors at large and against lowering the requirement of a two-thirds majority for passage of general obligation bond issues.

Marin's two representatives at the meeting joined in the unanimous vote opposing election of supervisors at large, but were among five dissenters as the bond issue resolution passed 9 to 5.

Eight counties were represented at the meeting, with each supervisor present having one vote. William A. Gnoss and Thomas T. Storer represented Marin County.

The vote against at-large election of supervisors goes counter to a bill introduced in the legislature by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, at request of the Marin County board.

Gnoss said the Marin supervisors favored lowering the bond issue requirement to a 60 per cent majority, as proposed in another bill in the legislature.

Landslide Batters Canadian Hamlet

STEWART, B.C. (UPI) — A landslide swept down on a remote copper mining camp in northwest British Columbia and officials feared for the safety of between 40 and 50 men, it was reported today.

The Pacific Western Airlines office at Prince Rupert, B.C., said one of its aircraft had picked up radio messages from the Granduc mine on Leduc glacier, reporting the disaster.

The original message said there was fear for the lives of as many as 50 men. There were no definite details on fatalities or injuries. First reports did not indicate when the slide occurred.

The Gambia Becomes A Nation

BATHURST (WPS) — Today the former British colony of The Gambia became independent. One of the smallest and poorest British colonies in Africa, it is expected to apply for membership in the United Nations. This will further strengthen the 35-member African bloc, already the largest and most vocal voting force in the organization.

Jawara

The Gambia is one of the queerest shaped countries in the world, resembling a crooked finger thrust into Senegal, which completely envelopes it except for The Gambia's 30 miles of Atlantic coastline. The Gambia is about 200 miles long and some 30 miles wide at its widest.

The Gambia contains 4,003 square miles of area, and has a population of about 316,000, almost entirely Africans. Most Gambians are Moslems.

The Gambia is a constitutional monarchy under Queen Elizabeth, which has been self-governing since Oct. 4, 1963. The Prime Minister is David Kwesi Jawara, leader of the majority party, the People's Progressive Party.

Albania Presses U.N. Showdown

Budo

Informants said if assembly President Alex Quainson-Sackey is unable to legally sidetrack the demands by Albanian delegate Halim Budo for an end to the voting moratorium, he may postpone the assembly session scheduled this afternoon.

Budo demanded Tuesday that the assembly vote to elect its steering committee, adopt an agenda and get to work. Quaison-Sackey averted a showdown by adjourning the session.

The United States says it will invoke Article 19 of the U.N. Charter if a roll-call vote is called in the assembly. The article specifies that any nation two years behind in its assessment shall lose its assembly vote, and the Soviet Union has threatened to quit the U.N. if its vote is taken away.

The crash site was about two miles from this recreation area and 45 miles from Los Angeles.

Livingston

The 56-year-old songwriter and his wife, Ruth, were reported in satisfactory condition after emergency treatment at the UCLA Medical Center. Attendants said Livingston had been shot in the left arm and Mrs. Livingston suffered a chest wound.

Livingston's compositions include "Mairzy Doats," "Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo," "Under a Blanket of Blue," "Close To You" and "The Shag."

Dirksen, Long Oppose Viet Nam Parley, Fear For U.S. Prestige

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen declared today it would be "dangerous to our security" to negotiate a settlement in South Viet Nam.

The Senate Republican leader announced he plans to answer Sens. Frank Church, D-Idaho, and George S. McGovern, D-S.D., who called yesterday for efforts to bring about a cease-fire in South Viet Nam.

In such a situation, Dirksen said he finds it "difficult to understand why members of the President's party are suggesting negotiations and other measures which would definitely diminish our prestige, weaken our position in that part of the world and have a definite impact on the thinking people in other areas of the world."

Dirksen joined with Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., and other GOP leaders in a statement yesterday advising the president not to enter any negotiations "so long as there is Communist-promoted infiltration of South Viet Nam in violation of the 1954 and 1962 Geneva agreements."

The Republican leaders said they support Johnson's course of ordering air strikes against North Viet Nam supply bases. Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, acting Democratic leader, applauded the GOP statement and added some elaborations of his own.

"This nation proposes to live up to its commitments," Long said. "When the Communists strike our forces in a place where we have a right to be, we propose to strike back stronger than they do.

"If a second power gets ino it, we propose to strike that second power even stronger. If a third power gets into it, we propose to strike that power harder. In each case, we propose to strike each with greater force than they strike against this nation, so long as they do not abide by the (Geneva) agreement."

King Presses Selma Efforts

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. says that what he calls broader civil disobedience measures will be undertaken in Selma unless Negro civil rights demands are met by city and county leaders.

"Selma still isn't right," King said last night after a strategy conference with leaders of the current right-to-vote drive, now in its fifth week.

King said "that far from letting up on activities in Selma and Dallas County we are going to broaden and intensify these activities."

If demands are not met, he told a mass meeting at a Negro church, "we must engage in broader civil disobedience measures to bring the attention of the nation on Dallas County."

King, still suffering from a cold and fever, scheduled a morning flight to Atlanta today along with several of his top aides. He said he plans to return to Selma Sunday night to intensify the vote drive.

King said, "Until Sheriff Clark is removed, the evils of Dallas County will not be removed."

Sheriff James G. Clark, 42, is the symbol of resistance to the Negroes. The officer arrested more than 3,000 during the first four weeks of the campaign starting Jan. 18.

Dallas County has about 29,515 persons of voting age, 14,400 whites and 15,115 Negroes. Registered voters in March 1964 totaled 9,542 whites and 335 Negroes.

Draft Quota Up

WASHINGTON (AP) -- Lagging enlistments forced the Pentagon yesterday to nearly double its monthly draft quota for April to 13,700 men compared with 7,900 for March.

Fast-Moving Suspect Held In Nevada Justice Beating

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Police and the FBI were waiting when 21-year-old Phillip Denning stepped off a bus last night and they immediately questioned him about the critical beating of Nevada's chief justice.

In Denning's pocket, police said, they found an oil company credit card belonging to the justice, Frank McNamee. Also found on Denning, police said, were cuff links with McNamee's initials and other business cards with the judge's name.

Justice McNamee was found in his apartment Tuesday in critical condition. His car and several household items were missing.

Denning denied that he had anything to do with it.

FBI Agent Don Morley said Denning will be charged with interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle.

McNamee's car was found near Oregon, Mo. Morley quoted witnesses as saying they saw a man matching Denning's description leave the car, and hitchhike to St. Joseph, Mo.

In St. Joseph, the man bought a bus ticket for Miami, Fla., with stops in Kansas City and St. Louis. Attempts to intercept him at Kansas City failed.

St. Louis police booked him as a fugitive from Lake Tahoe.

State Youth Centers Created

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Johnson administration's mounting war on nemployed youth has established a beachhead in California.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said in Washington that five Youth Opportunity Centers (YOC) have been created in metropolitan areas.

The centers, for which buildings have not yet been selected, will serve youngsters between 16 and 21 years of age.

They're located in the following areas: San Diego; Los Angeles; San Bernardino - Riverside - Ontario, at Colton; Santa Clara County at San Jose; and San Francisco - Alameda counties.

Nationalist China In Africa Struggle

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—"In a year or so," said Yang Hsi-kung, "what the Chinese Communists are doing in Africa will boomerang. They underestimate the intelligence of the Africans."

Yang, a handsome graying man, picked up an African wood carving, peered at it then continued: "They believe cynically that the Africans can either be corrupted or intimidated. They do not believe that human beings are capable of grandeur."

Yang, Nationalist China's vice minister of foreign affairs, is Chiang Kai-shek's top expert on Africa. In his own way he is fighting the Chinese Communists there. Though on the surface the two Chinas seem poorly matched, the small Nationalist program has achieved successes.

Communist China has expended enormous effort to make the emerging Africans see things their tough revolutionary way. It pours aid into friendly countries and ships guns and techniques to rebels leading subversion against governments they despise, such as that of the Congo.

The Nationalist Chinese approach to Africa aims at overthrowing none of its governments, Yang says, does not peddle a political philosophy of any kind and instead of aiming for the top reaches down to the grass roots. Its core is technical help to the farmers, fishermen and small industrialists.

Its yearly cost: Around $2 million.

In Liberia, the original Chinese team increased rice production almost 600 per cent an acre.

The Chinese grew jute where it had never been grown before, saving Dahomey half a millimn dollars a year in imports.

leave remote parts of South Viet Nam if they had no important reasons for remaining. There was no call for exacuation but the embassy said dependents who wanted to leave could.

The U.S. - South Vietnamese seaborne attack reported by Hanoi was alleged to have hit 200 miles north of the 17th parallel which divides North and South Viet Nam. It followed three U.S.-Vietnamese air attacks on northern military targets last week.

The Hanoi regime called the alleged raid "a new, extremely serious act of provocation by the United States and its stooges." A Hanoi broadcast heard in Tokyo said two of the ships were damaged when they were intercepted by North Vietnamese patrol boats."

Although the North Vietnamese protest was bellicose, it made no threats of retaliation. Hanoi said the International Control Commission was informed of the incident in a note which called it "a gross encroachment" and an "impudent violation" of the Geneva agreements of 1954.

The Viet Cong offensive which crumbled today began yesterday in the Mekong River Delta 35 miles southwest of Saigon when a guerrilla battalion attacked a government outpost near My Tho.

Military reports today said the guerrillas apparently elected not to stand and fight when the government struck back with a large-scale helicopter airlift of Vietnamese reinforcements.

Dresses Are Made From Furze Plant

SIBENIK, Yugoslavia (AP) — The women of the islands off the shore of this Dalmatian city still wear dresses made from a fiber which they obtain from the furze plant (gorse).

After the furze breaks into its yellow blooms, new branches spring out. The islanders cut the branches, soak them in salt water, and strip them down into fine thread which they weave into cloth.

Come Clean Now, What Happened?

OCALA, Fla. (AP) — When Harris Rabun, 22, fell from the roof of his house at nearby Oxford, the washing machine was waiting to catch him.

Rabun landed in the machine, which was directly beneath him, and in operation. He was hospitalized with a broken ankle.

Farm Labor Problems May Go To Johnson

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Senators protesting the cutting off of Mexican and other foreign farm labor suggested today that their colleagues take the matter to President Johnson.

Sen. George Smathers, D-Fla., said they will "probably have to take this matter to the White House" during a debate on a ruling by Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz which, in effect, bars the import of Mexican braceros and other foreign farm labor.

Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., in his maiden Senate speech, also asked that the President turn his attention to the farm labor situation.

Nationwide Farm Wage Supported

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Rules Committee today approved a resolution asking Congress to enact a national minimum wage for farm workers.

Assemblyman Alan Pattee, R-Salinas, the author, said California farmers don't object to paying a minimum wage if farmers in other states join them.

Tears Flow In Fight Over Custody Of Boy

SANTA MONICA (UPI) — A superior court judge today ordered Marlon Brando's 6-year-old son sent to live with the actor's sister during a six-month "cooling off period" until Anna Kashfi establishes her emotional stability.

Miss Kashfi, told she cannot visit son Christian Devi for at least three months, interpreted the decision as a defeat in her bitter custody wrangle with Brando. She ran from the courtroom and told reporters in tears, "I want my baby. You call this fairness? Brother, you can keep it."

U.S. Nuclear Blast Set Off Underground

WASHINGTON (AP) — A low-yield nuclear blast, the second this week, was set off underground today at the Atomic Energy Commission's Nevada test center.

The blast followed up a similar test conducted Tuesday, and is the fourth announced this year. A low yield test is one with the blast equivalent of less than 20,000 tons of TNT.

manager of San Rafael in November, 1957.

Corte Madera will actually have two jobs to fill, because Brandow serves also as town engineer. Colthurst said that last year the town council considered splitting the jobs and hiring an outside firm for city engineering.

At Belmont, Brandow's engineering training is expected to be of use, Mayor Robert Fitzgerald said, but he will not be city engineer.

Corte Madera hired Brandow Oct. 1, 1955, after he had worked seven years as an engineer for the Bureau of Engineering of the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission.

A native of Hayden, Ariz., Brandow received his engineering degree from University of California at Berkeley. He and his wife, Helen, have three children. While in Corte Madera, Brandow has been active in the Lions Club and as a Boy Scout leader.

Equal Phone Rate Plan Is Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation aimed at insuring equal rates for telephone users getting comparable service was proposed today by Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando.

Carrell said his bill was prompted by the fact that California Water and Telephone Co. rates in the San Fernando Valley are higher than those paid by nearby Pacific Telephone subscribers.

Carrell's bill would require the companies to charge the same rates to subscribers.

Old Etruscan Houses Found

GROSSETO, Italy (AP) — The earliest known Etruscan houses built of bricks have been uncovered at nearby Roselle. Archaeologists say they date back to the Third Century B.C.

The bricks were sun-baked, not oven-baked, and were joined together with liquid clay.

Other Etruscan houses found up to now have been of stone blocks. Later ones, built after the Romans took over the Etruscan cities, were of Roman oven-baked brick.

BUDGET

of California system and the state colleges.

He proposed a double - barrelled attack—a cut in expenditures and a boost in revenue to the state.

The savings could be made, Post said, by slashing from the university's budget 128 teaching assistants at Berkeley and 58 at UCLA. The revenue could come from instituting a tuition fee of $100 annually.

In the field of mental hygiene, Post recommended closing Modesto State Hospital for the mentally ill. This, he said, would result in a savings of $2.05 million without hurting the mental hygiene program.

Another deep cut recommended would save the state $6.3 million in the settlement of claims resulting from the 1955 Yuba City flood.

Post said "these claims have basic implications for the state's future flood control policies and programs. The conditions under which they would be paid are of such importance that special legislative attention is indicated."

Post also used a sharp knife on capital outlay, the money used for construction of state facilities.

The main item he recommended for elimination was a proposed $2.77 million bomb-proof headquarters for the Military Department and Disaster Office in Sacramento.

The second largest item would be refusing $2.14 million asked by the Mental Hygiene Department for the remodeling of institutions.

REPORT

McNamara also said that nearly 80 million Americans would be killed in an all-out nuclear attack on U.S. cities even if $25 billion were spent during the next five years on shelters and anti-missile weapons.

In the absence of such a shelter and anti-missile program—so far not even proposed—he said the death toll would be close to 150 million persons.

McNamara went beyond recent administration statements that Americans are in Viet Nam at Saigon's request to help preserve that nation's freedom.

"The choice is not simply whether to continue our efforts to keep South Viet Nam free and independent but, rather, whether to continue our struggle to halt Communist expansion in Asia," he said.

"If the choice is the latter, as I believe it should be, we will be far better off facing the issue in South Viet Nam."

Discussing China's nuclear effort, McNamara said it was a "most disturbing long - term prospect" that the hostile Peking regime could produce medium-range and even long-range ballistic missiles with thermonuclear warheads.

But he said that the Soviet Union fully understood the perils of nuclear war and he believed that Red China's leaders also were "reluctant to challenge the full weight of our military power."

He expressed hope that India would not yield to pressures to produce nuclear weapons. McNamara repeated President Johnson's offer of last fall to support non-nuclear, countries facing a nuclear threat.

School Group Elects Head For This Man

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The chairman of the Assembly Education Committee today introduced a bill requiring disclosure of the names of those distributing campaign literature in school district organization elections.

The bill by Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus, D-Reedley, would require the literature to contain the names and addresses of at least two of the officers of the organization publishing the literature.

Garrigus said that since passage of the 1964 bill promoting district unifications, "I have noticed a frightening increase in misleading and patently false literature, much of it anonymous, concerning school district unification."

DEFENSE RESTS CASE

A burned tire frames Lucille Miller and attorney Edward Foley as they go over transcript yesterday of her murder trial in San Bernardino. Mrs. Miller, mother of three and expecting her fourth child, is accused of the auto-fire death of her husband, Dr. Gordon E. Miller. The defense rested its case yesterday following her testimony that she once hoped to marry attorney Arthwell Hayton and loved him until "the minute Cork (her husband) was gone."

Four Men Indicted In Kuchel Libel Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An editor, a public relations man and two former Los Angeles police officers have been indicted on charges of conspiracy to libel Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger said yesterday that county grand jury hearings for the last three weeks focused on an affidavit that said the senator was involved in a morals offense 15 years ago.

Said Younger:

"Investigation disclosed that the allegations in the affidavit were false, reckless, malicious and vicious."

Indicted Tuesday were:

Jack D. Clemmons, 41, of suburban Reseda, a police sergeant until last week, when he resigned after serving since 1950.

John F. Fergus, 47, of Los Angeles, who says he has resigned his public relations job with Eversharp-Shick, Inc., to prevent embarrassment to his employer and fellow employees.

Younger gave this account:

The affidavit allegedly was signed by Krause, who, with another officer, stopped a car in Los Angeles on Feb. 11, 1950, and arrested two men on drunk charges.

Krause allegedly understood one of the men to be Kuchel, who then was state controller. Actually, the men worked in Kuchel's office and allegedly mentioned Kuchel's name several times while talking with the policemen, Younger said.

Krause reportedly gave the affidavit to Fergus, who allegedly sent it to Capell. Capell assertedly first heard the story from Clemmons, Younger said, adding that the affidavit later was copied and distributed to congressmen and the press.

Youth Captured As Theft Suspect

Lyons gave chase, catching the youth nearby and summonsing California Highway Patrol, deputies said. The suspect was cited to appear before sheriff's juvenile officers Feb. 23.

These Teachers Prove Desire Often Better Than Training

BERKELEY (AP) — A new type of elementary school teacher, long on desire but short on formal teacher training, is proving a success in Oakland and Berkeley schools.

The 15 participants in the intern program of the University of California School of Education have been in the classroom since September.

They had been trained in fields other than education but had expressed deep interest in working with minority children. So the districts hired them, after a summer of classwork and practice teaching, and put them to work.

The 15 include a pharmacist with four children, a retired Army major, housewives, a salesman, and graduate students.

"It appears these interns are doing as well if not better than the traditionally trained beginning teacher," said Dr. Donald Madsen, Oakland school district coordinator for elementary education.

He credits the program with instilling additional energy into the district's program of teaching youngsters in economically depressed areas.

The pharmacist is Henry Teshima, who tired of dealing with "slips of paper." He gave up at 43 a well-paying post and embarked on a new career at about half his salary.

After five months in a sixth grade Oakland classroom, Teshima declared teaching has broadened his overall view of life. He said his own family is all for his teaching career, looking on it as a family effort.

For best results, read the instruction books on operation and cleaning that come with new appliances.

CAPITOL BRIEFS

Liberalized Abortion Proposal Is Revived

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assemblyman Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, again has proposed a bill to liberalize the state's abortion laws.

His proposal, the Humane Act, would permit abortions in cases of rape and incest or when the pergnancy would risk grave physical or mental damage to the mother or child. Beilenson noted yesterday that present law forbids all abortions except to save the mother's life.

The measure, killed in the 1963 session, would stipulate that the mother, her personal physician and a therapeutic abortion committee give consent for the operation.

TEACHERS AIDED

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The 1961 law requiring teacher trainees to take more academic courses in college has come under legislative attack.

Assemblyman George Milias, R-Gilroy, introduced a bill Wednesday permitting trainees with college majors of physical education, industrial arts, home economics and health and business education to be eligible for administrative and supervisory credentials.

The present law—the Fisher Act — forbids this and labels such subjects non-academic.

QUACKERY HIT

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A proposal to put the clamps on the $1 billion a year medical "quack" racket, has been introduced in the legislature.

The bill, by Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando, would make medical quackery a felony subject to a 10-year prison term. Cases involving less than $200 are now misdemeanors.

"The medical quack falsely represents that he can diagnose and cure disease," he said. "He is unlicensed and untrained. Every time he treats someone who must have proper medical care to prolong or save life, he becomes a potential killer."

Shrine Bomb Plot Search Widens

NEW YORK (AP) — New York police, the FBI and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police sought possible additional members today of the thwarted terrorist plot to dynamite the Statue of Liberty, the Washington Monument and the Liberty Bell.

Authorities refused to comment on reports the search had spread to Cleveland, Detroit, Washington, Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Toronto and Montreal.

With the aid of Raymond Wood, 31, a Negro undercover policeman, the dynamite scheme was uncovered Tuesday. Police arrested three American Negroes and a white Canadian woman and charged them with attempting to blow up the three national shrines.

ARTS AND FLOWERS

It's spring in Mill Valley. Anybody who doubts it should have been on Matilda Avenue yesterday afternoon as Mrs. Elsie Pomeroy of 33 Elm Avenue and her art students painted pictures of Japanese plum trees in bloom — a "practically annual" tradition, according to Mrs. Pomeroy, who is in front watching the efforts of a very young artist, 5-year-old Mark Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Edwards. Artists in back are Mrs. Hobart Ferguson and Mrs. Paul Ristine.

Overall Unification Plan To Go To Voters

that will take five to 10 years to heal."

Ring, pointing out that the committee was offering the same proposal that was rejected by the voters, said he felt they should have a chance to vote on the three-district unification which was rejected by the State Board of Education last December.

Rogers said it was obvious as the result of public hearings Monday and last night that there was "an overwhelming desire to have a vote" on overall unification. "The committee would be derelict if it did not consider the wishes of the people," he said.

During the three-and-a-half hour public hearing, there were frequent rounds of applause as more than 35 speakers, including teachers, school trustees, parent-teacher association representatives and other residents spoke.

County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis drew a round of applause when he backed overall unification.

"Even though in the past, as you all know, I have favored the unification of the three-way split, I now favor the holding of an election for the district as a whole on April 20," he said.

Hollis said total unification is the best on which the voters will have a chance to vote. He predicted that it will pass overwhelmingly.

"The present two-way split proposal has no educational or community of interest validity whatsoever," he declared.

The two-way unification would have created one unified district of Reed, Larkspur, Kentfield and Ross elementary school districts and one of Sausalito, Mill Valley, Fairfax, San Anselmo, Lagunitas, Nicasio and Bolinas-Stinson elementary school districts.

Dr. J. M. Stubblebine, president of the Tamalpais High School District Board, said arguments over unification were hurting the educational program at the high school level.

"If we are divided, we are divided against ourselves and our children," he said.

Opponents of overall unification charged that an election now would not be an "honest election." The $15 bonus per pupil offered under the Unruh Act for districts that vote yes would be a bribe, they claimed.

No matter what proposal is offered, it would pass by virtue of the bonus, said Mrs. Conner.

Mrs. Alyce Farkas, chairman of the Reed School District Board, urged the committee to delay action to await a vote in the state legislature on proposed amendments to the Unruh Act.

During the hearing on the two-way proposal, which would separate the Redwood High School attendance area from the Tamalpais and Drake high schools attendance areas, one speaker said "the two-way split smacks of provincialism."

During the hearings the discussion ranged from comments about "Big Daddy" to laundry at Tamalpais High School and "de facto" segregation.

The vote for the April 20 election date was 9-2, with Ring and Mrs. Conner dissenting.

An earlier motion by Mrs. Conner for an election date between April 30 and June 3, was defeated by a 7-4 vote.

Election Move

Trustees of the Tamalpais Union High School District will meet in special session at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the district office in Larkspur to consolidate the election on the unification question with the election of district trustees.

Car Inspection Starts At Top

ATLANTA (AP)—Georgia's new auto inspection law went into effect Jan. 1 and one of the first to feel its bite was the man charged with enforcing it as a highway safety measure.

Lowell Conner, director of the Department of Public Safety, told a legislative committee that the 1965 car assigned him failed to pass inspection. He had to have defects remedied at a garage before getting a safety sticker.

But Conner strongly urged retention of the law without weakening amendments.

Civic Center Art Museum Is Suggested

Marin could become one of the world's cultural centers if a fine arts museum of highest quality were built at the Civic Center, Dr. Herschel Chipp, head of the art department at University of California, said last night.

Demand for museums outside central metropolitan areas is increasing, Dr. Chipp said, and Marin has already attracted national and international interest through its Civic Center, designed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

Residents of outlying communities are "kicking the San Francisco culture habit," Dr. Chipp told a meeting sponsored by the Marin Museum Assn. at the Civic Center.

Aaron Green, architect with the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, said a museum at the center should be more than a display gallery: it should be "an alive educational facility as well."

A third speaker, Edwin A. Cadogan, head of the art department at College of Marin, told the gathering that emphasis in the museum should be on contemporary art.

Services Group Re-Dates Dinner

A meeting scheduled for last night at Marin City by Marin Council of Community Services was canceled.

Subject of the meeting, the "total education" program in Marin City, is to be discussed at a dinner meeting marking the close of the council's Marin City program at 7 p.m. next Wednesday at Sabella's restaurant, Alto, according to Walter Bremond, supervisor of the total education program.

School Election Names Marshall

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization last night unanimously re-elected Earl G. Marshall of Novato as chairman.

In accepting, Marshall noted that his term on the committee expires this fall, and this probably will be his last year on the committee.

Mr. Watson Conner was unanimously re-elected vice chairman.

Thieves Net $1,000 Haul In Appliances

Burglary of a new home under construction on Lisa Court in Marinwood netted intruders about $1,000 in kitchen equipment, sheriff's officers reported yesterday.

Edward F. Smith, construction foreman of Gerald Hoytt Enterprises, Richmond, told deputies the building was entered, probably by forcing a kitchen door, Monday and a dishwasher, garbage disposal unit, and four-burner stove were taken.

Officers said of a garage door at Sausalito-Marin City Sanitation District yard near Sausalito was pried during the weekend. Nothing was taken, however.

A sterling silver flute in leather case, valued at $570, was stolen from Richard H. Caldwell, 17, of 171 Marion Avenue, Mill Valley. He told officers the flute was taken Feb. 3 from a desk shelf in Kaiser Hall of Tamalpais High School, but that he delayed the report in hope the instrument would be returned.

The flute is inscribed with the brand name, William S. Haynes, officers said.

Theft of three fire extinguishers from the Eden Roc Apartments, 1 Eden Roc Lane, Waldo Point, was reported yesterday by Agnes Schimetschek, manager.

Overdose Of Drugs

Grace Dupont, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrick Dupont of House 218, Marin City, was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital after taking an overdose of drugs. The girl was admitted to the hospital's intensive care unit at about 10:30 p.m. yesterday.

Birch Society Speaker Tells Group's Theme

By THERON A. NEWELL

A warning against communism and a plea for education of the American people against it comprise the theme of the John Birch Society, Hugh Fine, Bay Area coordinator of the John Birch Society, told a crowd of more than 80 people last night at Novato High School.

The crowd was about evenly divided between high school students and older adults. There were few of middle age.

Four people walked out during the question and answer period which followed Fine's hour-long speech and a half-hour film on the Birch Society. The meeting was quiet and orderly.

Fine claimed 30 espionage rings are operating within the federal government but only two or three had been exposed when an executive order stopped government employees from testifying before a House investigating committee.

He called for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren of the U.S. Supreme Court, and advised his hearers to read a book entitled, "Nine Men Against America."

He said that the big aim of the John Birch Society is getting Americans to realize the problem posed by Communism.

"Our strategy is education: our weapon is truth," he said.

He urged the audience to get and read a special packet of 12 books and the blue book of the Birch Society.

Fine also made several references to a lack of concern or takeover by communist thinking of "mass information media" of the country. He said the Saturday Evening Post printed 81 articles by a member of the Institute of Pacific Relations who, he said, turned out to be a communist.

The meeting was arranged through the Novato John Birch Society, with Gordon Schmidt making arrangements for use of the high school gymnasium. James Gribbins of the Teen-Age Republicans introduced Fine.

Sausalito Library trustees last night discussed applications for moneys for extended library service and for federal funds for building a new library. It was agreed to meet Saturday on the latter application should the forms arrive in time, said Mrs. James J. Carroll, board president.

Art Works Stolen From Restaurant

Two etchings and an oil painting by well known artists were stolen from a San Rafael gallery yesterday. The loss was discovered soon after 11 city officials left the room where two of the pictures had hung.

"The thief was obviously someone who knew something about art and knew what he was doing," said Mrs. Patricia Zimmerman, directress of the Musee d'Art International, where the theft occurred.

The gallery is combined with Dominic's Harbor Restaurant at 507 Francisco Boulevard. City councilmen met with members of the city parks and recreation commission for lunch in the chart room of the restaurant. That is where two etchings were taken. The painting was removed from the main dining hall.

The painting, entitled "Les Moules," is a small canvas, 5¼ by 8¼ inches, by Henri Cadiou, contemporary French painter. Generally blue-gray in tone, it is a still life of mussels, a glass of red wine and a salt shaker. Value is $500.

One etching, entitled "Joseph Tourny," is a 16-by-12¼-inch portrait of a man seated at a desk, by Hilare Germain Edgar Degas. It is valued at $60. The artist destroyed the plate so this print bears an X through it.

The other etching is a 15-by-18-inch print of a stylized torso of a man with a boat in the background by Roaul Duffy. It is entitled "Pepite Paigneuse aux Papillons" and valued at $50.

Nancy Stone, another directress, told police she discovered the theft at 1:50 p.m. She said the art could have been taken anytime during the morning, however.

V.A. Hospital Closure List Is Defended

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A top budget official today defended the economy closing of 11 veterans hospitals and hinted that additional shutdowns are in the works. He said old, inefficient hospitals must go as modern new ones are opened.

Philip S. Hughes, assistant director of the Budget Bureau, outlined President Johnson's position at hearings called by the House Veterans Committee. The economy order stirred furious protests from House members and senators.

He said as veterans get older their needs change, and that the VA hospital program also must reflect changes in medical knowledge.

Paper Strike Meeting Set

UKIAH (AP) — Striking union members meet tonight to vote on a proposed new contract with Masonite Corp. here.

Terms of the tentative agreement reached last night were withheld pending the meeting of the Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Workers Union Local 727.

Carol Howes, union international representative, said union negotiators were recommending approval. Howes said crews would return to work Saturday if the agreement is approved.

The Statue of Liberty, weighing about 225 tons was shipped to this country from France in June, 1885, in 214 separate packing cases.

Summer Home Is Burglarized

Burglary of the Fairfax summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lilienthal of San Francisco was reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said Mrs. Lilienthal said the structure, at 101 Monte Vista Road, was entered over the past several days by forcing south side French doors. Missing, officers said, are a case of liquor, three cartons of cigarettes, and a fire extinguisher.

Mrs. Lilienthal also said the intruders threw pool-cleaning equipment into the pool.

Files For Election

T. G. Ielmorini of 4296 Chileno Valley Road, Petaluma, today filed with the county schools office as a candidate for reelection to the Laguna School District Board in the April 20 school board election.

Burglars Get $500 In Loot

Two house burglaries, involving theft of $500 in radio and television equipment plus jewelry, were reported to Sausalito police Tuesday.

Archie Cameron told police at 9:30 p.m. that someone broke a window in his front door at 165 Woodward Avenue yesterday, entered his home and stole a necklace and bracelet, valued at a total of $200. A portable television set, a stereo set and an FM radio-phonograph. He estimated total loss at $375.

The home of Fritz Blackschmidt at 180 Spencer Avenue was broken into by forcing the locked front door, neighbor Raymond Schwartz of 172 Spencer Avenue reported at 4:40 p.m. Taken was a piece of stereo equipment valued at $125.

Marinite Dissuaded From Gate Span Leap

George F. Fox, 50, of 10 Los Cerros Drive, Greenbrae, was talked out of jumping from the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday by a highway patrolman.

Fox had just begun to climb over the bridge railing at 9:25 a.m. when Patrolman James R. Heinig drove up and began talking to Fox, who was easily persuaded to abandon the railing. Fox had driven onto the bridge in his car, leaving it in the southbound lanes. He was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

SATURN ARRIVES FOR TESTS

Lifted high above Sacramento River at Courtland Dock, first Saturn S-1VB rocket stage to arrive at Douglas Sacramento Test Center was unloaded from National Aeronautics and Space Administration barge Orion at Sacramento yesterday on the last leg of a 500-mile journey to Huntington Beach, Orange County. The unit is in Sacramento for test purposes. (UPI Telephoto)

Two Tell Of Pay For 'Espionage'

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Two men accused of spying for the U.S. Embassy in Damascus told a military court that the embassy's second secretary paid them $8,000 for information about "a rocket and a boat."

The testimony of Farhan Atassi, 37, a naturalized U.S. citizen, and Syrian army Col. Abdul Muenn El Haikimi was made public last night in a seven-hour television recording of the trial.

Atassi claimed a confession he gave interrogators was extracted under torture by electricity.

The two went on trial yesterday, shortly after the Syrian government announced the expulsion of the American diplomat, Walter S. Snowdon, 46, of Oakhurst, N.J., and accused him of heading a spy ring to collect secret military information.

The government claimed that Snowdon offered $2 million for the information.

Snowdon went to Beirut, Lebanon, last night and took a plane for Rome, en route to Washington. His wife and two daughters remained in Damascus but are to join him shortly.

The U.S. State Department denied the espionage charge.

Permit Asked For Sewer Pipe

Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District has asked for an Army Corps of Engineers navigational permit to install a forced sewer main beneath the north and south forks of Las Gallinas Creek.

The pipe would be buried nine to 14 feet below mean low water level.

Objections on navigational grounds may be filed in triplicate with the Army Corps of Engineers, 100 McAllister Street San Francisco, until March 16. Soon after that, the corps is expected to act on the application.

Belvedere Rec Group Meeting Fails Again

A meeting of the Belvedere Recreation Commission that was called last night for lack of a kuorum on Feb. 9 was canceled for lack of a quorum.

The commission will try again next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the community hall.

Mississippi Negroes Say Tensions Eased

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Witnesses agreed today that racial tension in McComb, Miss., scene of more than 15 bombings, has eased since white leaders took a stand against violence.

Jesse Lee Harris, a Negro field worker for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, told the U.S. Civil Rights Commission that the change has not been great but "we used to couldn't even get a church to meet in."

Harris said civil rights workers were arrested whenever possible on the most trivial charges.

Though conceding, under questioning by commission members, that things are better now he said statements of principle from white leaders "really don't solve problems."

Robert W. Brumfield, a white lawyer and former McComb city judge, said the change for the better was directly due to the statement of principle, backed by vigorous law enforcement.

Some 600 white businessmen in McComb signed the statement after the arrest of 11 white men, who drew suspended sentences in bombing cases.

The commission hearings, being held in the auditorium at the Veterans Administration Hospital, drew a capacity crowd. The hearings wind up tomorrow.

Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University, and commission chairman, yesterday asked Gov. Paul B. Johnson for protection of witnesses. The governor had said that racial violence would not be tolerated in the state.

Salinger Debt Charge Answered

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Carmen Warschaw, Southern California Democratic chairman, has replied to former U.S. Sen. Pierre Salinger's letter demanding her resignation with a letter of her own yesterday:

"...I must point out that at no time have you ever asked me ...to help you meet (campaign) debts."

Salinger's letter Tuesday said he understood she considered deficits incurred by Democratic candidates in last year's elections were none of her business.

POESY CONTROVERSY

Should U.S. Stick Nose In Peanut Butter Prose?

WASHINGTON (AP) — In everything from halting prose to lyric poesy, peanut butter lovers are telling the government what they hope to find when they pry the lid off the jar.

One goober gourmet, stirred by memories of what the delicacy used to taste like in his childhood, sent the following to George P. Larrick, commissioner of food and drugs:

"I think it's time you will agree,

For people of the whole countree

To speak as one (no stammer or stutter)

To demand some peanuts in our peanut butter.

"Too long we've endured homogenization,

And the tasteless goo of dehydration.

Give us the kind with the oil on top,

With peanuts from the best of the crop."

On the other hand, an Arizona boy who evidently likes his the modern way, creamy and smooth with plenty of additives to give it zing and zest, implored the government as follows: "I am 11 years old and I love peanut butter very much. I would be happy if the government kept its peanut-picking hands out of the jar."

The occasion for this symposium about the toothsome spread is a four-year-old effort by the government to set standards for peanut butter. Its current proposal is that peanuts make up at least 90 per cent of the total weight.

Manufacturers generally object to this, and also to a proposed ban on certain liquid sweeteners, and some non-peanut oils.

More than 1,000 letters from the general public have come in to the Food and Drug Administration.

A Canadian doctor, writing from St. Petersburg, Fla., said: "I have spent 10 winters here and always bring down a winter's supply from Canada. It is ground up nuts and salt. Not a fancy mess of nuts and chemicals that tastes like anything but peanuts."

But a North Carolina woman plumped for "the peanut butter status quo."

"I would like the right to choose my own blend as I do now," she said.

Police Arrest Three Youths With Beer

San Rafael police arrested three 18-year-olds from Hamilton Air Base after they were found in a parked car at San Rafael High School with an open bottle of beer yesterday afternoon.

They were Arthur Lawrence Hathoway Jr. of 422 Bolling Drive; John Joseph Jack, of 3 Andrews Court, and Mark William Baldridge of 222 West Kelly Drive.

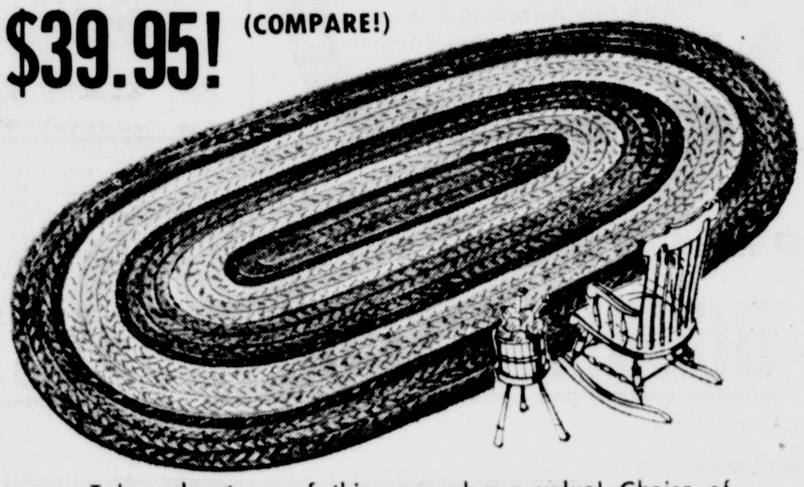

Canadian geographers are exploring the possibilities of a deep-sea port for northern British Columbia.

Babysitter Tells Judge About Series Of Trysts

A 15-year-old Terra Linda High School co-ed testified in Marin Municipal Court preliminary hearing today that a Marinwood father of three children had sexual relations with her "30 or 40" times starting last September.

The father, Kenneth Stewart Grove, 32, of 237 Cobblestone Drive, is charged with statutory rape of the girl.

She told Judge Leonard A. Thomas that most of the sexual acts occurred in the home of a neighbor, where she was babysitter on weekends, but two occasions were at Grove's own home.

Grove, who heads Grove Carpet and Upholstery Cleaning Co. in San Francisco, allegedly rented a secluded Santa Venetia one-bedroom cottage in December, continuing his relationship there with the girl after she left her own home and school to live with him a week.

Preliminary hearing was scheduled to continue this afternoon.

Cleanliness Can Go A Bit Too Far

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Police Judge William Colson agrees that cleanliness is next to godliness but there's a stopping point.

He emphasized this before releasing a defendant on a six-month peace bond.

The man had been arrested in an automatic laundry before dawn. He was naked. His clothes were in the washer.

Either Too Fast Or Too Slow

MOBERLY, Mo. (AP) — A visiting driver from Ft. Scott, Kan., was arrested here for speeding—and for driving too slowly — all within a matter of minutes.

Bob Tumin was halted by a radar unit officer for speeding and ordered to report to the city's police station. He did, but he drove about nine miles on a business route through the city and was nabbed again.

His too-fast-too-slow driving cost him $32 in court.

Gold was used for ornamental purposes on ancient tombs and for household utensils as long as 5,500 years ago, says the Book of Knowledge.

'THE SAME TO YOU, TOO'

Six-year-old Dale Schuster of Priddy, Tex., found himself exchanging seeming insults with an Angora goat while visiting the San Antonio Live stock Show yesterday. Although neither competitor looked very impressed with the other's efforts, the goat was able to put more tongue into it. (AP Wirephoto)

Primitive Glass Hid Rather Than Showed Contents

NEW YORK (AP) — The first glass made by man was no good for windows. It was neither transparent nor colorless, and was primarily for making bottles and ornaments.

The early bottles, made centuries before the birth of Christ, ranged in color from light green to brownish amber depending upon the materials from which they were made. It was impossible to see what was in them without taking out the stopper.

Glass bottles today can be colored and transparent at the same time, or they can be transparent and colorless, explains the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute. Color is added to today's transparent bottles by using chemicals. For example: Chrome makes glass green. Cobalt makes it blue.

A new bifocal lens has been developed that hides the fact they are bifocal.

Redwood Park Plan Meeting More Attacks

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Opposition to a proposed plan to safeguard more of Northern California's coastal redwoods was growing today even before the plan had been formally presented.

The Eureka Chamber of Commerce presented a resolution to Gov. Brown protesting the state plan to acquire 45,000 additional acres of redwoods and adjacent land in Humboldt and Del Norte counties.

The chamber said the acquisition would "remove vital acreage from the tax rolls and decimate the lumber industry."

Noting that 70 per cent of Humboldt County's income derives from timber, the chamber resolution said:

"We do not believe it is a function of the state government . . . through its power of condemnation...to destroy the industry. . . and create another Appalachia in Humboldt County."

The county board of supervisors, by a 4-1 vote, already has condemned the proposal.

Gog. Brown Tuesday reported completion of a master plan calling for the land acquisition.

But the plan will not be formally presented until tomorrow when it goes to the State Park Commission.

Both the chamber and supervisor's resolutions have pointed out that there are 407,042 acres of federal, state and local parks already in Humboldt County. They urged further development of these parks instead of further acquisition.

JFK Autograph Paying Well

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American autograph collectors generally are willing to pay more for George Washington's handwriting than that of any other president, says the National Geographic Society.

A four page letter, written by Washington in 1776 to his cousin Lund Washington, sold for $17,000.

Signatures and letters of John F. Kennedy have soared in value since his death. Many of his handwritten letters bring about $1,500, the same as comparable Lincoln items, National Geographic says.

Hawaii Begins To Fill Up

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaii as a place to live rather than to visit is becoming more popular.

During the third quarter of 1964, new residents totaled 7,960 — a record in the 14 years the statistics have been compiled. During the first nine months of this year, 18,475 people settled permanently in Hawaii.

And the Bureau of Planning and Economic Development notes males outnumbered females by 10 per cent "thus contributing further to Hawaii's surplus of unattached men."

COLOR STUDY

Blue Scrambled Eggs Win In Science Fair

Eighth grader David Slocum's study of the "psychological as well as physical effects color has during human consumption of scrambled eggs" took one of the grand awards in the Del Mar School Science Fair in Reed School District.

The other grand award, in the seventh grade division, went to Scott Holmes graphic study of "which way does electricity flow?" Using electrodes which included a silver fork and various electrolytes.

Young Slocum's project included carefully controlled tests of fellow students eating normal scrambled eggs, compared to their reaction when eating purple, brown and blue-green eggs colored with food dye. He checked pulses and noted the mental effects on his subjects.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Slocum, 1 Acacia Court, Tiburon. Scott is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Holmes, 22 Juno Road, Tiburon.

The science fair opened yesterday after Redwood High School student judges, each a science specialist, worked until midnight judging the 177 exhibits in the multi-purpose room of the school. Judges were Mike Kapousouz, Dave Reichard, Bill Kast and Bob Webb. Del Mar science teacher Ted McMillan organized the fair, from which the grand prize winners will go to the county science fair March 11-13 at College of Marin.

The Del Mar fair will be seen by nearly all Reed district pupils, who will be guided through exhibits by the scientists who made them. Parents also may see the exhibit when it is open from 7 to 9 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

Winners of first place awards in the seventh grade division were Lewis Judd, Merrie Crandal, Teri Davis and Carolyn Newman, Rex Griswold, Henry Otten and Chris Lynch.

First place awards in the eighth grade division went to Steve Coleman, Linda Samilson, Judy Van Evera, Leigh Bellingall, Doug Best, Patricia Harvey, Steve McCormick and Ray Lynch, Laurie Feldman and Gaile Ramey.

Report On 'Dead Ringer' Shows No Memory Of Past

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — A medical report on "dead ringer" John (Fritz) Johnson said today there is no indication that "he has any recollection" of his life as an Ohio salesman who disappeared almost eight years ago.

The doctors said they were also unable to find a medical or psychiatric reason for Johnson's loss of memory.

Johnson's family doctor revealed the results of exhaustive mental and physical tests conducted on the flamboyant Omaha television personality.

Johnson's fingerprints have identified him as Lawrence J. Bader, an Akron, Ohio, kitchen appliance salesman who disappeared during a fishing trip on Lake Erie in May, 1957. Johnson, now 38, turned up in Omaha three days later and became one of the city's best known figures before a friend of Bader's recognized him in Chicago early this month.

Bader has been declared legally dead and his wife, Marylou, and four children still live in Akron. Johnson has two children by a second marriage in Omaha.

Johnson's doctor indicated it would be months — if ever—before the mystery of why Bader disappeared and why Johnson cannot remember him is solved.

Glowing Stamps Speed Up Mail

TOWANDA, Pa. (AP) — Tiny specks of phosphor, in the ink used on postage stamps, may help revolutionize the Post Office's gigantic job of mail sorting.

A manufacturer, the Post Office and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing developed the special inks, containing particles of phosphor.

Stamps treated with these inks emit different colored light when excited by radiation. The shades of light can be "read" by electronic machines which then sort the mail automatically.

In a current experiment in Dayton, Ohio, airmail letters can be separated from a flow of 30,000 pieces of mixed mail an hour.

Six-Legged Calf Born

TAZEWELL, Ga. (UPI) — A rare, six-legged bull calf has been born on the James Jackson farm. "I've only heard of one other such case," said Troy B. Patterson, associate professor of animal science at Auburn University.

In most cases where egg division occurs during embryolic development, Patterson said, the calf dies before it is born.

George Hubbard, who manages the farm, said the calf is "the swiftest thing I've ever seen." The extra pair of legs are joined at the center of the calf's back.

Now That She's 50, She'll Make Stop

LOUISVILLE (AP) — A local Belle is having an anniversary this year. The lady is the Belle of Louisville, an excursion steamboat owned by the city and county.

Nick Kranovich's foolproof plan for saving money

Nick Kranovich, a longtime employee of the Nevada Mines Division of Kennecott Copper Corporation, has been salting away a little in savings every payday since 1941.

Which should interest you, since he raised 3 children in that time and handled the same expenses you probably wrestle with.

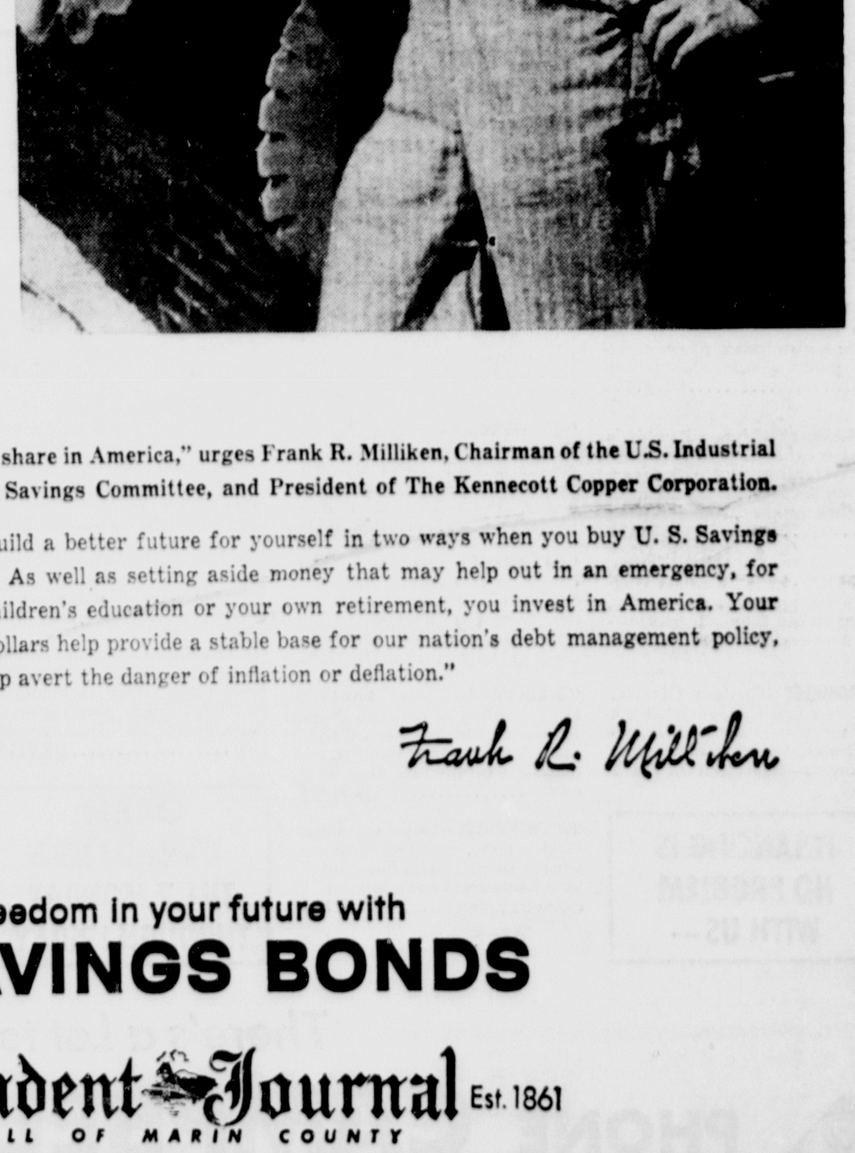

His method is the Payroll Savings Plan. A savings plan that's foolproof because it's so easy.

Each payday, the Kennecott paymaster sets aside a small amount from Mr. Kranovich's pay check and puts it toward the purchase of a U. S. Savings Bond. Mr. Kranovich doesn't even see the money he's saving, and he learned long ago this makes it easy to get along nicely without it.

If he chooses to collect his nest egg at maturity, he'll find it has grown 1/3 fatter with interest, and more if he holds it longer. In the meantime, his Bond dollars have helped Uncle Sam preserve his right to spend his savings as he wishes.

A savings plan that works so well for Nick Kranovich (and millions of other payroll savers) is bound to work for you.

Just tell your paymaster you want to try it. Your savings will come automatically.

"Own a share in America," urges Frank R. Milliken, Chairman of the U.S. Industrial Payroll Savings Committee, and President of The Kennecott Copper Corporation.

"You build a better future for yourself in two ways when you buy U. S. Savings Bonds. As well as setting aside money that may help out in an emergency, for your children's education or your own retirement, you invest in America. Your Bond dollars help provide a stable base for our nation's debt management policy, and help avert the danger of inflation or deflation."

Marin Labor Council Re-Elects Hub Butcher

James Smith of San Anselmo was elected for another year's term as president of the Marin County Labor Council last night.

The council is made up of representatives of AFL-CIO union locals in Marin. Smith, a member of Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen Local 115, is a butcher at Littleman Market in Corte Madera and lives at 60 Park Way, San Anselmo.

He was re-elected without opposition.

JAMES SMITH
Elected without contest

Also elected without opposition were Charles B. Weers of Novato (Sheetmetal Workers Local 75), vice president; High Cassidy of San Rafael (State, County and Municipal Employees Local 411), secretary-treasurer, and Paul Crumley of San Rafael (Carpenters Local 35), Mrs. Terry Haag of San Anselmo (Office Employees Local 3) and Ray Markt of Fairfax (Bartenders Local 126), trustees.

In the only election in which there was a contest, seven members were chosen from among nine candidates for the executive board. Elected were James Issel of Cotati (Machinists Lodge 23), Michael Pechina of Corte Madera (Bartenders Local 126), Harry Reed of San Rafael (Painters Local 83), Lloyd Brooks of San Rafael (Laborers Local 291), Leyton Youngclaus of Corte Madera (Retail Clerks Local 1119), Lloyd Ward Jr. of Fairfax (Carpenters Local 1710), and Philip Ruby of Kentfield (Teachers Local 1077).

The council adopted a resolution urging the county board of supervisors to reappoint Brooks, council executive board member, to the county personnel commission when his term expires this spring.

It also adopted a resolution backing the International Typographical Union in advocating passage of a state law against importation of strike breakers. There has long been federal law in the same field.

Windjammers Popular

A talk on "sailing ships that came to San Francisco Bay" by Karl Kortum, director of the San Francisco Maritime Museum, drew more than 180 people to Reed School last night. The talk was one in a series sponsored by the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society.

'Rescuer' Charged In Nazi Gassings

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Dr. Franz Bernhard Lucas, who voluntarily accompanied a court commission of the Auschwitz war crimes trial to the death camp last December, was accused today by a codefendant of having sent thousands of inmates into the gas chambers.

"If Lucas says here that he helped people then that was perhaps in 1945 to get himself a return ticket (alibi)," former SS Sgt. Stefan Baretzki told the court. "Before that, he sent thousands into the gas. Today he wants to present himself as a rescuer."

It was one of the rare times that a defendant broke what the prosecution described as a "conspiracy of silence" among the 20 former Auschwitz functionaries on trial.

Baretzki said that all defendants had been fully aware of what was going on in the death factory. He said Lucas, a gynecologist, had selected Jewish children to be gassed despite the pleas by other SS men to spare them.

Automation Meeting

Legislation to control the speed of automation and give tax relief to workers displaced by it will be urged by the Mill Valley Democratic Club at the California Democratic Council state convention in Sacramento this week end.

Wornum Says Annexations Are Policy In Mill Valley

Michael Wornum, mayor of Mill Valley, said today the city council has a policy encouraging annexation of land within Mill Valley's watershed and it is within the jurisdiction of the city manager to submit such proposals without approval of council.

"Until an annexation comes before us for a public hearing," he said, "it is just a proposal." The council acts at the hearing where it is determined: (1) whether the council wants the annexation, and (2) whether the people concerned want it.

Under city policy, Wornum said, City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer has the right to process any annexation in an area which is served by Mill Valley's sewer plant and within the city planning area, when requested by property owners.

"It has to be this way," Wornum said, "because if you have a public hearing, your mind shouldn't be predetermined before the hearing.

"I dislike the innuendo (in a story in yesterday's Independent-Journal) that we have secret meetings," said Wornum. At the worst there was a slight breakdown at city hall. But there was no intention to deceive and we are trying our best to achieve our policy goals.

"This talk about Alto Bowl and North Ridge has been a long, long one. There has been no reason to be secret on these annexations. There is no motivation."

(The I-J telephoned all city councilmen save Wornum, who could not be reached, yesterday, asking at what meeting the latest annexation proposal of 206 acres on North Ridge was decided. Two councilmen could not recall a date; the other two said it wasn't decided at any meeting but was simply policy.)

Wornum said he first learned of the filing with the County Local Agency Formation Commission for North Ridge lands in the Independent-Journal.

"It's ridiculous we didn't know about something like this," he said.

He termed the proposed city of Alto a "spite city," saying, "it's like spite fences. Mainly it is to block us. The reason a lot of property owners are coming in (to Mill Valley) at this stage is because they don't want to join Alto.

"I don't think Alto as a city is going to happen."

Woman To Face Court On Checks

San Anselmo and San Rafael police yesterday joined in the arrest of Alice K. Simon, also known as Alice K. Lothrop, at her job at San Rafael General Hospital on a warrant for a series of bad checks claimed by the Drake Market, 820 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Simon, 45, of 12 Brookdale Avenue, San Rafael, was released on $550 bail and was to appear late today in Marin Municipal Court.

The market held checks for $16.99 from Nov. 14, $25.11 from Nov. 25, $12.68 from Nov. 28, $17.17 from Dec. 2 and $29.81 from Dec. 5, according to San Anselmo police.

'Deputy' Actor Cited In Vatican Bombing

ROME (UPI)—A left - wing actor with a role in the anti-Pope Pius XII play "The Deputy" was charged today with bombing the Vatican Yesterday. Police said he and another young man were to blame.

Actor Claudio Volonte, 26, was charged with placing the bomb which heavily damaged a door leading from Vatican City into Rome. Under Italian law he was not jailed but will remain free until his trial. Only persons caught in the act are jailed.

Volonte had grown a beard for a part in "The Deputy" and one of the two men who carried out the bombing at 1:50 a.m. was known to have been wearing a beard. This and his past record led to his questioning.

Volonte, a brother of actor Gian Maria Volonte who tried to produce the controversial play in Rome, is a member of the far-left pro-Chinese Socialist Party of Proletarian Unity. He had been in trouble with police before for bombing incidents — when he was an extreme rightist neo-fascist.

"The Deputy" criticized Pope Pius XII for not speaking out against the Nazi massacre of Jews in World War II. Police had banned it as an affront to the Vatican, and there was speculation the bomb explosion was staged as a protest.

Volonte had remained at the central police station overnight at the "disposition" of interrogators but at the time was not placed under formal arrest.

Police called in a beautiful movie actress, Dominique Boschero, earlier to check Volonte's alibi. He had told police he was with her when the bomb exploded.

California Road Repairs To Go Ahead

WASHINGTON (AP) — Northern California has the green light from the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads for $17 million worth of repairs to roads and bridges damaged by the Christmas week flood.

Rep. Harold T. Johnson, D-Calif., said yesterday that he was informed the federal share of 13 planned projects will total $13.2 million.

The projects include $17 million in repairs to 52 miles of U. S. 101.

The two largest projects will be underwrtiten entirely by federal funds: $4 million of repairs to 12 miles of U. S. 299 in Trinity and Humboldt counties and $3.5 million for 17.1 miles of U. S. 199 in Del Norte County.

Since its emergency relief fund is nearly depleted, the bureau now is advancing five per cent—or $853,250—to the state, with the understanding that the balance will come later through congressional appropriations.

San Geronimo Valley Gas Service Urged

Extension of natural gas service to the San Geronimo Valley will be urged by Marin County officials at a meeting at the California Public Utilities Commission office in San Francisco at 10 a.m. on Feb. 26.

Arrangements for the meeting were announced today by County Clerk George H. Gnoss, following passage by the board of supervisors Tuesday of a resolution urging the service.

Scheduled to attend are Public Utilities Commissioner William M. Bennett, Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, Asst. County Council Richard H. Godino, and representatives of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and San Geronimo Valley organizations.

PRESIDENTIAL INTEREST

These three turtles on the hand of Jim Karkheck, 10, and an essay the Durham, N.Y., Cub Scout wrote about them have drawn the interest of President Johnson. The essay began: "I have three trustle. They have everything they could want except one thing—freedom . . . People in many countries in this world lack the same thing." Johnson read the essay at a White House Boy Scout ceremony and said he'd like to meet the lad who won a Freedoms Foundation award. Jim said he'd like to meet the president, too.

Legislator Convinced On Fort Ord Opening

FT. ORD (UPI)—Los Angeles County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said yesterday he would not oppose resumption of basic training at Ft. Ord if the meningitis preventative program outline to him is continued.

Hahn, senior member of the board and chairman of its Military Affairs Committee, was one of a 14-member group from Los Angeles which toured the base. He moved for and secured adoption of a resolution last year urging suspension of training because of the meningitis problem.

In December, the Army suspended basic training at Ft. Ord where there were 106 cases of meningitis during 1964. Fifteen of the victims died.

The Army previously announced that it hoped to resume training around April 1, but no exact date has been set.

Maj. Gen. Edwin H.J. Carns, commander of Ft. Ord, told the Los Angeles group he knew of no medical reason why training should not resume. He said cessation of training was contrary to his recommendation in the first place.

Lt. Col. Harold Audet, chief of the preventative medicine at Ft. Ord, said that if training is resumed there are bound to be some cases of meningitis.

"Anyone is foolish who says there will not be," he said. "We are hopeful the chain of infection has been broken."

Liquor Is Stolen

Barbara Duke reported to Mill Valley police at 6:30 p.m. yesterday that someone removed bolts and forced open two French doors at her home at 84 Cypress Avenue and stole a bottle of bourbon. The theft occured between 7 a.m. and 6:20 p. m., she said.

U.S. currency, whether a $1 note or $100, costs less than one cent a bill to make, says the National Geographic.

Councilman May Join Park Group

Possibility of a city councilman sitting as a member of the city parks and recreation center was broached in San Rafael yesterday as a means of improving communication between the two groups.

Arthur W. Fiedler Jr., chairman of recreation commission, made the suggestion at a joint meeting with the council at noon at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant.

Councilmen agreed to ask a research of the city charter to see if an extra man could become a member of the commission or if he could only sit in an advisory capacity.

Mayor John F. McInnis asked that minutes of the recreation commission meetings be sent to councilmen in the future. Commissioners agreed to order that this be done.

By the year 2000, it is estimated, world population will be six billion.

Sausalito Planners Get Rail Abandonment Plea

Abandonment and removal of Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks between Richardson Bay Bridge and the Corte Madera Tunnel was suggested to the Sausalito City Planning Commission last night in a letter from the city of Mill Valley.

The proposal, part of the east Mill Valley general plan, was in a letter from Harvey E. Bragdon, Mill Valley planning director.

Bragdon asks the commission's review and comment on three items:

Abandonment of the railroad, Mill Valley's assumption that any rapid transit will not go on the present railroad bed but east of Highway 101, and, what should be done with the shoreline and water area of Richardson Bay-Mill Valley Harbor located west of Richardson Bay bridge.

The commission, said chairman Robert L. Nissen, decided to ask Bragdon to appear before it.

The city of Sausalito is on record as being against abandonment of the rail line.

The commission discussed the proposed subdivision ordinance for more than three hours, then submitted it to city engineer B. J. Whitlow for revision.

It adjourned at 1:15 a.m. today and agreed to meet next Thursday at 8 p.m., pushing the day ahead one day because of a testimonial dinner for retiring Fire Chief Matthew J. Perry on Wednesday night.

TV Purchase Plan

NEW YORK—Screen Gems, Inc., has signed agreements for the purchase of 100 per cent of the stock of the New Orleans Television Corp., licensee of WVUE, the ABC-TV affiliated station in New Orleans for approximately $8 million. The sale is subject to FCC approval.

It takes nature from 500 to 1,000 years to make an inch of good topsoil that can wash away in a single night.

Contract Is Awarded For New Dixie School

The Dixie Elementary School District Board last night awarded Page Construction Co. of Novato a contract to construct a new school, to be named Dixie School, in upper Lucas Valley.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said the contract was awarded subject to state approval because the construction is a state loan project.

The school, to be on Idlyberry Road, will have 12 classrooms and an administration unit. Completion for opening of the school year next September is expected.

Fostmeier Construction Co. of Petaluma bid $364,200 and Wright and Oretsky of Santa Rosa bid $361,500.

Willis said the overall bid is within the estimate, but one section, the base bid, is over and that variation will require state approval.

Conservation Plan Urged

Greater cooperation between conservation groups throughout the state was urged last night at the meeting of the Marin Conservation Council at the Marin Rod and Gun Club in San Rafael.

Peter Whitney of Inverness, executive director of the Scenic Roads Assn., said more cooperation was needed to fairly represent the growing number of conservationists.

The council made final plans for its annual banquet on Feb. 27 at 8 p.m. at the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

U.S. Presidents are not immune to arrest. President Ulysses S. Grant, charged with speeding in his carriage, forfeited $20 bond.

Group Defends Alto City Right

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council last night went on record as supporting the right of Alto residents "to decide for themselves" on incorporation.

But if Alto incorporation comes to a vote and loses, council members agreed that the "natural interest" of Tiburon extends to Highway 101.

Council members spent almost an hour in carefully wording the resolution, which is to go to the Local Agency Formation Commission, county supervisors and the cities of Mill Valley and Tiburon, reported Mrs. Jacqueline Parnell, council secretary.

The coordinating council is made up of residents of both incorporated and unincorporated areas of the peninsula and includes representatives from Tiburon, Belvedere and Strawberry and many homeowners associations.

Council members appointed G. Roger Felton as treasurer, replacing K. L. Rice Jr. who resigned following his appointment to the Reed School District board.

Mack Nicolaysen, president of the Bayview Heights Property Owners Assn., was appointed to the council to replace Thomas E. Drohan, who resigned to become chairman of the Tiburon Citizens Advisory Planning Committee.

The Four Brothers will play for the Mill Valley Youth Council dance tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Municipal Golf Clubhouse, for high school age members only.

Radio Is Stolen

Norman Henry Bickel of 100 Rayo Vista Way, Apt. 9A, San Rafael, told police that someone pried the door of his apartment yesterday afternoon and took a $35 transistor radio and $5 in quarters.

The Empire State Building will hold 25,000 tenants.

TAM TEACHER

He'll Take To Road After Retirement

Victor H. Rowe, teacher and counselor at Tamalpais High School for 21 years, will start traveling when he retires in June.

Rowe talks of doing "just a bit of traveling," then starts naming such places as Japan, Hong Kong, and keeps going with Spain, Mexico and the Scandinavian countries.

Rowe taught English and later became a counselor on the Tam staff, beginning with the school in 144. Three years ago he was named head counselor.

He was born in Montana in 1904 and headed east to Harvard University, where he was graduated with a major in English. He taught in Montana and Richmond before coming to Tam. Rowe did graduate study at various colleges, gaining a master's degree in education from the University of Southern California.

He and his wife, now retired from teaching in the Mill Valley School District, reside at 100 Homestead Boulevard, Mill Valley. Rowe is a member of the Sierra Club and maintains an interest in "mild mountaineering."

In his resignation letter to the district board of trustees, Rowe wrote:

"This note is to make the official announcement and to express my regret (as well as my carefree joy) at leaving the Tam Family."

Some Photography Should Be Allowed In Courtroom

A proposal to ban photography in courtrooms, both during judicial proceedings and while the court is in recess, is under consideration by the Judicial Council of California.

We do not and have never condoned the excesses in news gathering that tend to distract and at times even disrupt legal and other official proceedings.

But the rare excesses, we feel, should not be used as an excuse to outlaw all use of cameras to bring to the public glimpses of courts in action.

Several years ago, an attorney wanted to close a Marin Superior Court to the public.

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli, now retired, refused. He declared the courts are public places accessible to all citizens, and the proceedings should be open to their approval or disapproval.

And the press serves as the eyes and ears of the public, the judge added.

Today, "press" means not only the printed word but various electronic media of mass communication such as cameras, microphones and television "eyes."

All media of mass communication should have access to the courts, subject only to the proviso that they do not interfere with the proceedings.

There is no question that flagrant offenders should be barred. The courtroom is no place for those who dart from chair to chair, chatting or whispering in loud tones.

Neither is it a place for popping flash bulbs or the old focal plane shutters that operate with a loud kerplunk

The courtroom is no place for the radio announcer who jams a microphone into your face, or for TV technicians with glaring, hot lights and miles of cables following him up and down the aisles.

We do not suggest that these be included among the "eyes and ears" of the public.

But along with reporters who can sit still and take notes unobtrusively, the photographer who can sit with the spectators with a camera on his lap should be allowed to record the proceedings on film.

And when technology improves to the point where television can quietly record the happenings from soundproof booths and without glaring lights (as is done at the U.N.) it too should be allowed its place among the eyes and ears of the public.

The big argument in favor of banning photography in courtrooms is that they "interfere with a fair trial." But there has been no showing that innocuous and unobtrusive coverage of trials has interfered with administration of justice.

In fact, some of our best courtroom picture in Marin have been taken from silent cameras, often without the participants being aware that they were being snapped.

Courts could do more to promote fair trials by policing some of the public utterances of over-zealous lawyers than by muzzling and blindfolding the eyes and ears of the public.

We believe the advantages of bringing to the public a better understanding of court proceedings through pictures and print far outweigh the so-called "disruptions" that news media might cause in the courtroom.

Ancient Rome And Modern Romance

The origin of Saint Valentine's Day, on which to celebrate the tender emotion, is lost in the mists of antiquity.

We know that there were two early Saints named Valentine. It is said that one was always encouraging the youth in his parish to marry at any early age.

A more intriguing notion has it that the 14th day of February was the time birds mated in ancient Rome. Now there's an idea to catch our fancy. As if Rome—the moonlight on the Tiber, the fountains, and the excitable, lovable people — were not romantic enough, we throw in the idea of birds mating.

Very unscientific, but then so is love.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Capital Punishment Argument Is Old–Likely To Go On And On

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Although in the past the State Legislature never has submitted the issue of capital punishment to the people, it once again has the opportunity to do so through bills introduced by two legislators this year.

Sen. John W. Holmdahl (D-Oakland) and Assemblyman Burt Henson (D-Ventura) have placed constitutional amendments before the Legislature calling for the abolition of capital punishment in California.

But whether the Legislature will act on the measures is another matter.

MEASURES OF A like nature were submitted in 1963, one by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael). But the solons have been reluctant to have the people vote once and for all to determine whether, as a people, they want to dispose of this highly controversial issue.

The Legislature, of course, has the power, if it chooses, to adopt a statute which would ban the gas chamber. Such measures again are before the Legislature as they have been at least since 1927, when one of the first major campaigns was initiated against the death penalty.

HOWEVER, THE sponsors of eliminating the death penalty never have been able to get their ideas across to the representatives of the people, particularly a majority of the State Senate.

The same sponsors apparently are reluctant to have the issue placed before the people in the form of a constitutional amendment, for fear the people will vote the same way as the State Senate, which would be for continuation of the death penalty.

If the people of the state at least had opportunity to vote on the issue, the vote might stop continuous argument in the Legislature.

THE MATTER is one which the Legislature is not likely to resolve, at least in the near future.

The issue is not one which is of sufficient importance to warrant the expense of an initiative on the part of the sponsors, who probably could not raise enough money to put the measure on the ballot.

Therefore, it is unlikely the proposal will get on the ballot in this way.

Even with Gov. Edmund G. Brown failing to carry out the provisions of the law with regard to the death penalty, not enough force has been generated in the Legislature to abolish it. It seems the controversy will last a long time, even after the past 38 years of argument.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Enforce Law On Littering

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Regarding the litter problem in California:

(1) Why not pass a law with a stiff fine for littering—(about $500 would be right)—and enforce it. If a few people were fined for it, others would be more careful.

(2) Place litter barrels in convenient locations by the roadsides, as other states do.

I can truthfully say that California has the worst litter problem of all the states I went through on a recent motor trip to the middle west and points east.

It certainly takes away from the beautiful countryside to look out on beer cans, paper, bottles, rags, boxes—anything that could be disposed of neatly and lawfully in garbage dumps—or in litter cans.

Put up signs stating the amount of the fine for littering.

I think this is much saner and more adult than Mr. Powers' suggestion of throwing the garbage at Smokey the Bear.

Poison Oak Article Wrong

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The poison oak article on Feb. 11, by reporter Robert Coppock, is misleading to most of Marin's new citizens.

This immune reporter is only the second person I know of in the 10 years I've lived in Marin County. This weed has no silver lining, as stated in his article. The facts are these:

This weed shrub is dormant this time of year and still is dangerous. And when it has green or amber leaves, it is dangerous for anyone who brushes against it. Beware of cats and dogs who roam the hills and uncleared areas of Marin, they will bring back the oils from the leaves of the plants.

The soil commissioner and real estate people only need to look at the new plantings on our highways to see what grows well on Marin's hills. Any nature shrub will do and be more beautiful year 'round.

I would like to suggest this reporter and his family go into the hills of Marin and "grab armfuls of poison oak" to take home; he may find the next day, all are not immune.

Our Politics On Gaming Table?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Required reading for this week should be Washington's "Farewell Address." Not only does the date make it timely, but events make it pertinent.

Of late this great document has fallen into some disrepute. This, because the opponents of the League of Nations used to cite it as an argument against participation even in an orderly world organization. Their conclusion was unwarranted. One is justified in interpreting Washington's praise for our Union of States as a peacekeeping device as applying equally to a United Nations, had one existed.

But his warnings against basing our whole foreign policy primarily either upon friendship or hostility to any foreign power is certainly appropriate. We are justified, too, in interpreting his words as urging us not to put up our free institutions as collateral to guarantee conditions in some Asiatic nation that doesn't know what it wants in the first place.

While it is perfectly proper for us to participate in world organizations for the preservation of peace, it is quite another matter for us to subordinate our enlightened methods of doing business to any Oriental concepts of "saving face." Nor can one condone placing on the gaming table of Foreign Power Politics all those values our Fathers have handed down to us as Americans.

Urban Sprawl Tied To Parents

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I commend Mr. Gregg's letter of Feb. 13 (Warning Sounded on Urban Sprawl). He shows an awareness of a basic problem—our burgeoning population. How can we preserve our lovely Marin and the breathing space in the world if we do not control family size?

Are the citizens of this county aware of an organization here devoted to enabling parents to choose the number of children they wish to bring into this world? Planned Parenthood Association is the only donation-supported health and welfare agency specifically dedicated to the dispersal of information on family planning. It is Planned Parenthood's belief that regardless of religion, race or financial status, parents should have the right to decide the number of children they can adequately love and educate to their fullest potential for tomorrow's crowded, complicated society.

Truck Farmer Comeback Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It has been said of the American system that regardless of the product, someone always comes along who can make it cheaper, on a larger scale and of poorer quality. I think this is what has happened to our vegetable growing industry.

The absence of the braceros may be bad for the large producers; but, I believe we can and would adjust to this situation—not by transient part-time American farm laborers but by the increase of the small truck farmers who, with the help of the whole family, do much of the work themselves.

Even Russia has found that farming on a large scale is not too satisfactory. I believe it has not been too satisfactory here. It is not necessarily the incompetence of our doctors that makes us the sickest nation on earth. More likely it is our artificial way of living and the poor quality of our food.

The small truck farmer can grow the nicer varieties of vegetables because they do not have to be good shippers and they do not have to be picked green. They are obtainable locally while they are still fresh. In my opinion, more small truck farmers and home gardens and more small roadside stands could be a big factor in the improvement of our health.

BENNETT CERF

BILL ALEXANDER notes that one of those phoney Broadway merchandise marts plastered with signs reading "Last Few Days: Everything Must Go," has now been going out of business for so long that last week three "temporary" employees received gold watches for completing 25 years of service.

A MERCHANT WHO prided himself on his sagacity found himself in the company of a bald-headed man and a barber on a journey undertaken in ancient Greece. Pitching camp in a desolate section, the three agreed that each should stand guard four hours to guard their possessions through the night. The barber, on watch first, in a playful mood, shaved the head of the sleeping merchant, who had drawn the second watch. Said merchant, walking away from the fire, rubbed his head in surprise, then grumbled, "That fool barber has made a mistake and awakened the bald-headed man instead of me!"

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Attacks On S. Viet Nam Must Be Treated As Attacks On U.S.

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson has not spoken often or at length about Viet Nam. But when he has, he has made three things clear and explicit—as far as words can do so.

He has said:

It is "essential" to defeat the Communist aggression against South Viet Nam—not just important and desirable, but essential.

Failure "would convince every nation in South Asia that it must now bow to Communist terms to survive."

"The aggressions of Hanoi and Peking must and will be defeated" (stated through Secretary of State Dean Rusk).

THE PRESIDENT put it all together in his address after the North Vietnamese attack on U. S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin last August:

The challenge that we face in Southeast Asia today is the same challenge that we have faced with courage and that we have met with strength in Greece and Turkey, in Berlin and Korea, in Lebanon and in Cuba. To those who may be tempted to support or to widen the present aggression, I say this: . . . there can be no peace by aggression and no immunity from reply."

These words have not persuaded the Asian Communists the U. S. really believes that turning back the aggression against South Viet Nam is "essential." Or that we intend to do whatever is necessary to see that this aggression "will be defeated."

NO, HANOI and Peking have not been persuaded. The reason is that actions, not words, make policy believable to the enemy. Our actions in Viet Nam have not equalled our words.

We have treated this war as though winning it were essential to South Viet Nam, but not essential to the United States. We have for the most part permitted North Viet Nam to practice aggression and enjoy immunity. Secretary Rusk once gave a somber cease-and-desist-or-else warning. When it was not heeded, we did nothing.

Something more is being done now. It is being done not so much at our initiative as it is because Hanoi and the Viet Cong have intensified their attacks. The war is entering a radically new phase.

IN MY JUDGMENT, President Johnson could not respond other than he has. But it is not certain from these few retaliations that the war is really going to be brought home to its source in a sustained manner.

The mounting intensity of the Viet Cong attacks gives us little choice. We can hardly justify joint U. S.-South Vietnamese air raids over North Viet Nam when there are attacks on American forces unless we are prepared to do the same in response to similar attacks on South Vietnamese forces.

It would not be surprising to see Hanoi directing its attacks exclusively on U. S. installations for a time. This would suggest to Saigon that if the Americans would only get out, then peace would be forthcoming.

WE ARE NOT, I think, going to play into the Viet Cong hands by treating these intensified attacks on South Vietnamese forces differently than the attacks on our own forces.

Since halting this aggression is essential to our national interest, then there is no other course but to halt it.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union is setting up an airlift of modern arms to support its stepped-up so-called "wars of liberation" in the Congo and South Viet Nam.

Russian cargo planes, including giant TU-114 turboprops, are flying regularly to Asia and Africa with large stocks of rifles, machineguns, ammunition, mortars, flamethrowers, bazookas and medical supplies.

A new repeating recoilless bazooka that fires a tungsten warhead capable of destroying a medium tank is also being airlifted to the Congolese rebels and Communist Viet Cong.

AS DESCRIBED by Army experts who have examined captured weapons, this bazooka is far superior to anything the U. S. now possesses.

Significantly, the United Arab Republic, Algeria and Sudan, three beneficiaries of U. S. surplus food and technical aid, are cooperating fully with the Soviet airlift, together with Mongolia and Communist China.

According to the latest "hard" U. S. intelligence, these Communist or pro-Soviet governments are permitting the Russians to establish security units at strategic local air bases being used by the Kremlin as refueling stops and storage areas.

THE PRINCIPAL Soviet air route to the Congo runs from Kiev, in southwestern Russia, to Sofia, Bulgaria, and across the Mediterranean to Cairo, one of the two main Russian arms staging areas for Africa and the Middle East.

From the UAR capital the weapons are loaded on smaller Soviet jet transports for the flight to Khartoum, capital of Sudan. There the shipments are reloaded onto propeller-driven planes for transport to Juba, near the Sudan-Congo border.

A second Russian arms route to the Congo originates in Algeria, where President Ben Bella is allowing the Soviet to build a massive arms base with shipments from Black Sea ports.

The main Soviet arms route to North Viet Nam begins at Omsk, in central Russia, and goes via Irkutsk, near Lake Baikal, and Ulan Bator, Mongolia's capital, to Peking. From the Red Chinese capital, the weapons are flown to North Viet Nam.

To supervise this massive airlift operation, a secret commission of presidium members has been set up that includes Alexandr Shelepin, former KGB (secret police) chief; Yuri Andropov, boss of all Communist Party operations within the Soviet bloc, who accompanied Premier Alexei Kosygin to North Viet Nam, and Boris Ponomarev, head of all Communist parties outside of the Iron Curtain.

ALTHOUGH U.S. intelligence information is circumstantial, these experts believe that young, vigorous Shelepin is chairman of this special commission.

They base their assumption on Shelepin's activities since the commission was formed, immediately following the ouster of Premier Nikita Khrushchev. Shelepin traveled to the UAR, Sudan, Algeria, Mongolia and Communist China, making all the arrangements and setting up the security for the arms airlift.

He is refusing to cooperate with the association in timing the regular Defense Department - sponsored trip of 25 reserve officers from NATO countries with their mid-winter conference here.

Master Plan Item For Reservoir At Ross May Be Bit Misleading

District Mgr. William R. Seeger's 10-year master plan for the Marin Municipal Water District earmarks $150,000 for fixing up Phoenix Dam, so the lake behind it, now drained, can be filled again.

But conservationists, fishermen and residents of Ross had better not hold their breaths, waiting for the job to be done.

In all, the development of new pipelines, reservoirs and treatment plants in the district calls for a myriad of projects to cost 6.1 million dollars, and some pretty extensive jobs are scheduled for the next fiscal year, if the district board goes along and money is found.

THE DAM PROJECT is also included for next year. The lake was ordered emptied by state officials after the Baldwin Hills disaster in Los Angeles. The water once impounded by the dam is not needed now that the new Nicasio Reservoir is full.

District directors have informally agreed to chip in about $50,000 of the cost if the county or the town of Ross or civic groups can come up with the rest of the money to make repairs.

For that reason, Seeger's recommendation that $150,000 come from the district was a surprise. But the recommendation may be misleading.

THE FIRST MAJOR construction project in the plan would be replacement of the stretch of the south Marin supply line from Summit Avenue in Corte Madera to the Alto Reservoir near Mill Valley. There is now an old 16-inch diameter pipe.

Although the water runs downhill, the grade is not steep enough, and pumps must be used during peak periods. Then only about 6.5 million gallons a day can be delivered and almost that much is used.

A new 21-inch pipe, to cost $220,400, will deliver 7.5 million gallons without pumps, or 12 million with pumps. The important factor is that specific scheduling for construction to start this summer has been done.

THE NEXT REALLY big project is a 34-inch pipe from Ross Reservoir down Lagunitas Road to the main transmission line in Ross. This $225,000 project would not be started until 1966, but tentative construction dates have been set and plans are about ready.

The Ross project will replace what an engineer called "four streaks of rust" under the street, now carrying the water but leaking, at times, profusely.

Then there is the dam project, called for in the master plan for next fiscal year also. But there is no time schedule, no detailed plan, no real project.

SEEGER SAID the project is difficult to plan because, like an earth slide, no one knows how bad it is until digging starts. But he also said the $150,000 in the master plan can be considered a cushion.

In other words, somebody should get cracking with money from other sources, and not be lulled into believing the district will rebuild the dam alone.

County planners have been complaining about lack of fresh water for recreation in Marin. Since the water district does not need the lake, it would be a natural spot for all water sports.

What Makes This World Happy? Good Double Talk, That's What

NEW YORK (AP) — Heaven created the possibility of a perfect language — but man invented double-talk.

Double-talk is ideally suited to man's needs, as it permits him to mask his motives by saying one thing while he is thinking another.

It is said by some that a better world would result if the people had a language that would enable them to communicate with each other perfectly. Actually, this really isn't so.

If we all were completely honest and told our innermost thoughts about each other some bright spring morning, by nightfall no one would be speaking to anyone else and the moon would shine down on an earth in bloody shambles.

DOUBLE-TALK is a necessary bridge of hypocrisy we must employ to get our business done until the time comes when hypocrisy will no longer be needed.

Here are a few samples of conventional double-talk, followed by their real meanings:

"Our small country is eternally grateful to the United States for the grain and tools of peace it has supplied us." And now, if we can just get some weapons and military advisers from Russia or Red China we can start war on our capitalistic neighbors.

"IT WAS so nice of you to remember my birthday, dear." How come you had amnesia last year?

"The thing I admire about you, Jim, is that you never lose your head when things go wrong." You're too dumb to realize the situation.

"We finally decided against sending junior to Harvard. It has become so dreadfully parochial." Yale won't take him either — and neither will the U.S. Marines.

"TRY SITTING in this chair. I think you'll find it much more comfortable." The one you're sprawled in now is an antique — and cost me $150.

"And let me show you our new model 6½-room apartment with the oversized foyer." It has 4½ rooms — if you count the kitchen twice.

"If you're looking for growth possibilities, I'd recommend a little flyer on this stock." I'm stuck with 1,000 shares of it myself.

"IF IT weren't for you dearest I don't know what I'd be." Just happy and single.

"It won't be any trouble. I'll be glad to take care of your goldfish while you're away on vacation." I'll even get my cat to help me.

"I can personally guarantee this used car is in the best condition of any on the lot. I got it from an old maid who hardly ever took it out of the garage." Every time she did, she got picked up for drunken driving.

Yorty Hits Back At Roosevelt

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mayor Samuel W. Yorty has labeled "ridiculous" Rep. James Roosevelt's charge that there is a "sinister alliance" between Yorty and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

Yorty said yesterday that Roosevelt's accusation was an apparent "cover-up for the fact" that, according to Yorty, City Councilwoman Rosalind Wyman and her husband, Eugene, state Democratic, chairman, put Roosevelt in the mayoralty race in an attempt to control City Hall.

Roosevelt said Tuesday that Unruh was afraid the Democratic congressman would run for governor in 1966, interfering with what Roosevelt called Unruh's own gubernatorial ambitions.

Merchants Urged To Lock Doors

New Auto Wash Is On The Way; Instant Hot Water Planned

Automobiles should certainly sparkle this spring. But if the thought of keeping the family car clean presages giving up some of your weekend leisure, don't worry about it. There should be plenty of professional car washes around the county by then to do the job effectively and quickly.

Another new one has just broken ground in San Rafael, with an opening scheduled for about April 15. This will be San Rafael Car Wash, 990 Francisco Boulevard, at the southeast corner of Bellam Boulevard.

It will be operated by James Gordon of Terra Linda Meadows, former co-owner of the Cellars restaurant. He and supplier Fred M. Gore of the Bay Area Car Wash Equipment Co. are also acting as general contractors, with work to be performed by local subcontractors.

Gordon's property is about one-half acre, on which an 85-foot building and 160-foot canopy will be built. A snack bar may be installed later. Capacity will be 100 cars an hour, he says, with a staff of 10 workers. Cars are not pulled through the wash by a chain, but moved by means of a wheel rotating against one of the tires.

FORMER SAUSALITO RESIDENT Raymond J. Moonen (now living in Sebastopol), who may have seemed to spend most of his time managing real estate rentals, has had another project going which is just about to bear fruit.

It's a warm air and instant hot water portable wall heater for mountain cabins, seashore cottages or any other location where it's difficult to install the usual water heater. Moonen's product attaches to the wall with four bolts or screws, attaches to sink plumbing with plastic hoses and needs only an electric outlet so it can be plugged in.

His patent has cleared the original search and is being placed on record. He says the master heating element is made in Minnesota, but the cabinet is made by the Gearharte Co., the printing is done by Graphic Arts and the commercial art work is by Warren Zimmer—all of Sausalito.

And that's where this project of the Raymond J. Moonen Co. is headquartered—at 507 Easterby Street. Manufacturing and marketing is now under way.

Timmer Engels

HIGH MAN on the multiple listing totem pole in Marin residential real estate sales last year was William Timmer, whose single San Rafael office closed property transactions during 1964 of over 8.75 million dollars. It was a record breaking period for Timmer, with 283 sales and cooperating sales. He has more than 10 per cent of those figures closed for January, he claims, which should indicate another high in 1965.

Timmer will open a second office soon in the Northgate Shopping Center.

DONALD E. ENGELS of San Anselmo has been appointed manager of industrial relations for Pacific Cement and Aggregates, Inc., San Francisco. He joined the company in 1963 as assistant manager after serving as assistant manager of the Sacramento Valley Employers Council.

HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE is starting a course in "Aerospace Operation Management," with instructors from the University of Southern California. "Highly elegible" civilians will be accepted in the classes, according to educational officer Don Spelling.

The change has been approved by a special shareholders meeting, SFO is wiling amended articles of incorporation with the California Secretary of State, Bagan said.

All sales of SFO stock after today will be in terms of the new common shares, four of which will be equal to one unit of Class A and common stock.

Airlines Buying Brisk, Market Closes Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today in active trading. Buying was brisk in airlines and a wide selection of issues.

IBM rebounded about 10 points from recent losses.

Airlines won a renewed following with buying strong in previously neglected issues. KLM rose about 3. Eastern recouped 2 points of recent losses.

Xerox ran up 3 points.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.9 million shares compared with 5.59 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Although a number of major groups went nowhere, there was a definite pickup in speculative and investment demand.

Airlines were conspicuous on the upturn as raders rotated interest to previously neglected issues. KLM, one of the lower-priced issues in the group, spurted more than 2 points for a big percentage gain. Eastern Air Lines recovered from recent profit taking and gained more than a point.

Texas Gulf Sulphur met a big renewal of demand and spurted nearly 2 points, making a strong bid for the honor of most active stock.

A wide variety of selected issues were bought briskly.

Among these, gains exceeding a point were scored by Hallicrafters, Great Western Sugar, Motorola, TWA, Eastern Gas & Fuel, Corn Products, Celanese and American Metal Climax.

Steels and motors were narrowly mixed. Rails advanced.

IBM rebounded more than 7 points from recent selling.

Prices advanced on active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Arden Farms Earnings Up

LOS ANGELES—An all time record high increase for 1964 of 66 per cent in earnings over 1963 for Arden Farms Co. has been revealed by J. Earl Garrett, vice chairman of the board and chief executive officer, and Carl D. Flinn, president of the West Coast based company.

This increase was reflected in earnings of $1.21 per common share on net income of $4,754,400, up from $.55 per common share on net income of $2,868,746 in 1963.

Sales figures for 1964 climbed to a new high of $466,808,736, up 10.6 per cent over 1963, and the record earnings according to Garrett resulted mainly from increased returns from operations. During 1964, the Mayfair Markets chain merged with Arden Farms Co.

SMALLEST ATOMIC CLOCK

Diana Sherman displays the world's smallest atomic clock, newly developed by Varian Associates at Palo Alto, for communications use and navigation by supersonic aircraft, which would be able to determine the position of a rocket to within three-quarters inch on a 238,000-mile trip to the moon. An atomized vapor of rubidium is excited electrically to produce a reference signal. (UPI Telephoto)

Beatles A Smash Hit On London Exchange

LONDON (UPI) — The British Stock Exchange made it official today: The Beatles are a smash hit.

It took only 60 seconds for brokers to announce the public had grabbed up 1,250,000 shares at $1.09 each in Northern Songs Ltd., ($1.36 million) in which Beatles John Lennon and Paul McCartney are major stockholders.

The sale itself placed a valuation of $5.4 million on the song publishing firm but not all stocks were offered for sale. Lennon and McCartney own 30 per cent of the stock personally and today's one-minute stock market action made their stock worth $1.63 million.

The value of their stocks plus huge incomes from royalties, recordings, personal appearances and movies put them well into the multi-millionaire circles, according to popular music circles. Beatles Ringo Starr and George Harrison do not write for Northern Songs although they may be among the unnamed original stockholders.

Peek-A-Boo Pennington Strikes Oil

RENO (AP)—A former private detective and his son say they struck oil on the first try in eastern Nevada last week. The success was described as a major discovery.

"Two of our partners were up here yesterday and they said their friends had absolutely no faith in us striking oil," said William V. Pennington, 64. "There isn't one company that thought we had a chance."

College Cage Scandal! Seattle Stars Arrested

Independent-Journal Sports

3 Charged With Idaho Game Fix

SEATTLE (AP)—Two Seattle University basketball stars and a Chicago tavern owner were arrested last night on bribery conspiracy charges involving a game with the University of Idaho.

Charlie Williams, captain of the Chieftains; a teammate, Peller Phillips, and Leo Casale, 23, of Chicago, were arrested in connection with the Jan. 22 game in Seattle. Casale was arrested in Chicago.

Seattle won the game 89-72. In New York the point spread of the game was 18 points.

Williams and Phillips were arraigned last night, and U.S. Commissioner Walter Roseburg Jr. released them on their personal recognizance. The two Seattle players asked for a preliminary hearing, which Roseburg set for 1:30 p.m. March 1.

Casale is to be arraigned today in Chicago, the Federal Bureau of Investigation said.

The charge against Casale and the two 21-year-old Seattle University seniors is "that they did conspire with each other to carry into effect a scheme or plan in commerce to influence a sporting contest by bribery." The FBI said the maximum penalty is a $10,000 fine or five years in prison or both.

An FBI spokesman said it is believed to be the first such arrests on the West Coast, and perhaps in the nation, under a new federal law which became effective last June.

The spokesman said the new sports bribery law makes it a violation to use interstate with commerce facilities, such as a telephone or telegraph, in connection with bribery affecting outcome of a sporting event.

The 1964 law was passed after point-shaving scandals earlier, after players allegedly sought to keep game scores within prescribed limits so bookmakers would profit on gambling.

Williams is the son of a minister and is married and has one child. His major study is sociology, and he planned a career in social work after graduation. Seattle U. is a Jesuit institution, and Williams has been working part time as an assistant recreational director for the Catholic Youth Organization.

Williams Was Teams Top Scorer

Phillips also is married, and his major studies are physical education and history. He is a fast 5-foot-10, 167-pound student from Detroit, by way of Coalinga Junior College in California.

Williams, a 6-foot, 154-pounder, was born in Colorado Springs, Colo., and played at Stadium High School in Tacoma. He is Seattle's high scorer, averaging 20 points per game and has been prominently mentioned as a contender for All-America honors.

Williams's highest number of points this season was 38 against Duquesne in Pittsburgh, a game Seattle lost 80-74. In the Idaho game, he scored 16 points, and Phillips accounted for eight.

Seattle has won its last 11 games and has an 18-7 season record.

The report of the game carried by the Seattle Post-Intelligencer the morning after the game said:

S.U., after being ahead by 24 points at 65-41 in the second half, came apart and made numerous errors . . ."

"Idaho took advantage of SU turnovers, caused by lackadaisical play, and the (Idaho) Vandals cut the Chiefs' lead to 16 points at 70-54 with 7:40 to play.

"Substitutes Elzie Johnson, Rick Mathews and Ralph Heyward boosted the lead to 21 with three minutes to play."

Williams could not be reached for comment, and Phillips's wife said he would have no statement to make.

Eddie O'Brien, athletic director and a former basketball star for Seattle, said both boys were suspended from the team and the university for "admittedly having knowledge of a bribe attempt and for failing to report it."

Agents Quizzed Seattle U. Players

But O'Brien added: "We're not judging them. That's not our business."

O'Brien said his first word of the investigation came yesterday morning from FBI agents who interviewed SU players during the day.

Milnes said officials of the university cooperated fully in the investigation.

Williams was a high school star in Tacoma and has been a favorite with Seattle fans the past three years. His sensational steals and fancy dribbling have attracted much notice.

Last season his clutch playing against Oregon State gave the Chieftains an upset victory over Oregon State in the NCAA Far-West regionals. The Chieftains eventually lost to national champion UCLA in the regionals but finished third by defeating Utah State.

Phillips started off this season as a first stringer but has been a reserve lately.

At Kansas City, Walt Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said he was awaiting a report on the Seattle University case.

Idaho Quint Had No Indication Of Fix

SPOKANE (AP) — There was nothing in the University of Idaho's basketball game with Seattle University Jan. 22 that would indicate "anyone was trying to shave points or anything like that," Coach Joe Goddard of Idaho said today.

Two Seattle University players, Charlie Williams and Peller Phillips Jr., and a Chicago tavern owner, Leo Casale, were charged last night with bribery conspiracy in connection with that game, won by Seattle 89-72.

"As I recall the game," Goddard said, "Seattle is a powerful team physically and they started off well against us. But in the progress of the game we started to come back.

"I thought it was because we played better ball, taking the game to Seattle and fighting from behind.

"Our defense did a real good job on Williams. I'm very positive our boys on the University of Idaho team had no indication of anything unusual at all."

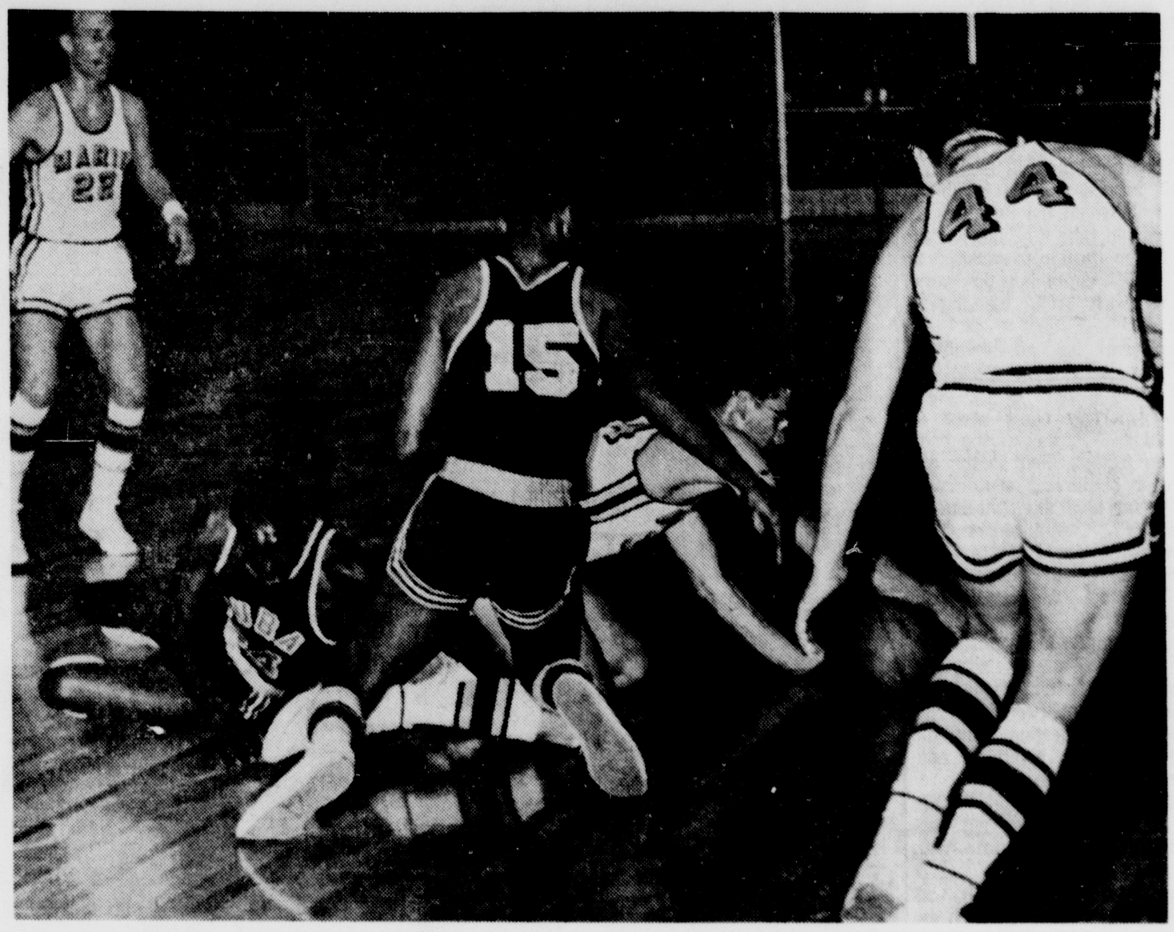

He said Idaho played a good defensive game, and once the Vandals fell behind Seattle, their offense started improving.

Goddard said Idaho used a pressing defense.

"This is unfortunate," he said "became something like this always affects innocent people. . .others on the team... the coach.

"It's unfortunate that the ignorant behavior of a few affects the game of basketball and, of course, the university. I feel it's really unfortunate out here in the Northwest, where I feel we have the highest moral character and moral programs.

"It's disgusting to say the least," Goddard added.

Marin will be trying to win its 19th straight game tomorrow night when the Tars host Santa Rosa in Kentfield at 8 o'clock. Santa Rosa, sporting a 7-1 record, is right on the Tars' heels in Golden Valley Conference standings.

Tars, Giants Seek Titles

College of Marin hosts Santa Rosa Junior College and San Rafael High School is at Redwood High tomorrow night in a pair of key basketball games.

Marin's Tars, riding on an 18-game victory streak, lead the Golden Valley Conference with a 7-0 mark. Santa Rosa is their only competitor in the race for the title, the Bear Cubs boasting a 7-1 mark in conference action.

So that game tomorrow, slated to start at 8 p.m., should be the best game of the year. Incidentally, that one loss suffered by the Santa Rosa quint was to the Tars, back on Jan. 15, when Marin downed the Bear Cubs 94-77 in Santa Rosa. In that game, Marin's Brad Busch and Jay Johnson led the Tar scoring with 33 and 28 points respectively. Since that time, Busch's eligibility has run out and he no longer is with the team. Big man for Santa Rosa in that game, and all season for that matter, was Tom Stewart with 34 points.

Turning to that key prep battle in Larkspur the Giants can clinch the Marin Athletic League title with a triumph over San Rafael. Redwood has a win-loss record of 8-1 compared to second place San Rafael's 6-3 mark.

In their first meeting of the season, Redwood beat San Rafael 46-41 on the Bulldogs' court.

Redwood forwards Tom Bly and Don Detrick led the Giants scoring in that game, Bly with 15 points and Detrick with 11. High scorers for San Rafael were Ken Erdman with 12 points and Terry Overlid with 11. Those four boys should be high on the scoring list tomorrow night also.

That Redwood-San Rafael game will start about 8:15 p.m., following the Class B game scheduled for 7 p.m. In other prep cage action tomorrow night, Marin Catholic will be at Tamalpais and Novato will be at Drake.

Fear Wide-Spread 'Fix' Scandal

NEW YORK (AP) — Disclosure of fix charges involving the Seattle University-Idaho game of last Jan. 22 caused apprehension today that a new wide-spread college basketball gambling scandal may be uncovered.

If so, if would be the fourth fix scandal to shake college basketball in 20 years.

Charlie Williams, the captain and high scorer of the Seattle University team and his teammate, Peller Phillips, Jr. were arrested at their Seattle homes last night by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Each is 21 and a senior.

The FBI also announced that Leo Casale, 23, a Chicago tavern owner, was taken into custody in Chicago.

The FBI charged that they "did conspire with each other to carry into effect a scheme or plan in commerce to influence a sporting contest by bribery." The FBI gave no further details.

The first scandal in the sport came in January, 1945, the second in February, 1951 and the third in March, 1961.

Numerous star players, including some All-America choices, from many major schools were indicted on charges of having conspired to throw games or shave points.

The 1945 scandal involved five Brooklyn College players who admitted they accepted bribes to throw their game with Akron scheduled for Jan. 31, 1945 at Boston Garden. The District Attorney of Kings County, N.Y., disclosed the fix on Jan. 29 and the game was immediately canceled.

In February, 1951, the collegiate world was shocked by the disclosure that three star players for City College of New York had been arrested for accepting bribes. At the time, CCNY was the kingpin in college basketball having won the 1950 national collegiate title and the NIT tournament in an unprecedented grand slam.

In the end, evidence from the office of Frank Hogan, New York District Attorney, showed that between 1947-50, 86 games had been fixed at Madison Square Garden and in arenas in 22 other cities in 17 states by 32 players on seven teams including such basketball powers as the University of Kentucky and Bradley University.

In March, 1961, Hogan's office disclosed another scandal that before it was over involved 37 players from 22 major colleges. Hogan's evidence showed that the players accepted money from so-called bribe masters of some $750 to $4,450 to fix games.

Jack Molinas was tried on a charge of conspiring to fix 25 games in the 1961 scandal. He was convicted as was Salvatore Sollazzo on a similar charge arising from the 1951 scandal.

Some of the more prominent players involved in the scandals were three All-Americas, Ralph Beard and Alex Groza from Kentucky and Gene Melchiorre of Bradley; Ed Warner, Alvin Roth, Ed Roman and Floyd Lyane of CCNY's championship team; Don Gallagher, Stan Niewierowski and Anton Muehlbauer of North Carolina State; Jerry Graves of Mississippi State; Art Hicks and Hank Gunter of Seton Hall; Ray Paprocky and Connie Schaff of New York University; Fred Portnoy of Columbia; Jack Egan, Vince Kempton and Frank Majewski of St. Joseph's, Pa., and Sherman Whie, Al Bigos and Leroy Smith of Long Island University.

White, Bigos and Smith confessed to taking $18,500 in bribes to fix seven games. Layne got $2,890 and the others amounts from $750 to $5,000.

"I'll never be able to figure out why we did it," Groza said in an interview several years ago. "Guess we got caught up in the (post-war) times. . .it was being done by other teams. . .so we went along."

HANLEY

Bob Shaw baffled enemy batters during the first half of the season last year. During the second half he baffled himself in one ineffective relief appearance after another. If Shaw had pitched after the All-Star break the way he pitched before it, the Giants might not have finished three games off the pace.

"I can't pinpoint the reason for it," said Shaw from his home in Jupiter, Fla. "During the first half of the season everything went right. I had them hitting my pitches into the most beautiful of plays for the fellow on the mound—the double play. I didn't get the DPs during the second half."

The primary reason Shaw didn't get the DPc during the second half of the season was that his sinker didn't sink after the All-Star break. It worked magically during April, May and June. Suddenly, it refused to sink. Why? That's the puzzle.

A stylist and confirmed believer in pitching fundamentals, Shaw made no change in his delivery during the second half of the season. He described a figure eight with his windup and follow through. He carefully set himself in a square stance so he would complete his delivery with a balanced follow through on the ball of his free foot.

IT IRRITATED Shaw any time he saw another pitcher violating one of the fundamentals. He didn't hesitate to point out another's faults. But he couldn't correct his own problem after the All-Star break.

During the first month of the 1964 season, from April 14 to May 14, Shaw strode to the mound 10 times in relief. He was perfect. He won three games, saved four, and in his three other appearances sealed the win for the man he relieved.

THE GIANTS never had relief pitching like that since moving from the Polo Grounds. In 20⅓ innings, Shaw allowed only two earned runs. His ERA was 0.88. It was true that he seldom pitched a clean inning. In those 20⅓ innings he allowed 22 hits. He seemed to enjoy the threat of base runners, erasing them with DP pitches.

That kind of bullpen work entitled Shaw to a start. So he was given a start on May 24 against the Pirates and they kayoed him in six innings—five runs on nine hits. That was Shaw's first and last start as a Giant. He went back to the bullpen and resumed his role as a stopper.

During June he picked up three more wins in relief and at the All-Star break he was 6-3 with five saves. He was to win only one more game after the All-Star break and wound up with a 7-6 record and 3.77 ERA.

GIANTS VS. JAPAN

The Murakami Case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Japan's Nankai Hawks were making their final front-line effort today to keep pitcher Masanori Murakami on their team and sooth Japanese- American baseball relations.

But, there is no international law that could force Murakami to leave Japan.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick ruled yesterday in New York that the Hawks "had no proof" of their claim that Murakami was on loan to the Giants only for the 1964 season.

Feeney had said he would abide by Frick's ruling. The Giants argue that they bought Murakami's contract outright from the Hawks for $10,000.

Stanka said the conference with Feeney "will probably be about the last meeting."

"We hope this case won't harm the two countries' relations in baseball," Stanka commented. He and Hawks' coach Carl Hanta conferred with Frick in New York Monday. In his ruling, Frick said:

"I have sent out a bulletin to every one of our clubs that there will be no further relations with Japanese baseball until this thing is settled to my satisfaction."

Stanka said, "We hope it will work out so both will be happy." "But both can't be happy because there is only one Murakami."

Stanka has pitched five years for the Hawks. Murakami became the first Japanese to play in American big league baseball when he was moved up to the Giants Sept. 1.

Stanka said Murakami wants to stay in Japan.

The Nankai negotiators reported they plan to leave for Japan soon after the talk with Feeney.

"We hope to show Mr. Feeney that this is all a complete misunderstanding," Stanka said.

Feeney said earlier this week that "there was no misunderstanding. It was all put down on paper last year."

Snow Just Great At Alta, Utah; Marin Touring Group Due Back

ALTA, Utah—This is Shangri-la for skiers. The snow just couldn't be any better. On a base of 15 to 50 feet, we had knee-high new snow this morning and the powder hounds could hardly wait for the lifts to open.

Charlie Massen, Barry Evergettis, Scott Watterworth and Terry Bunton, of the Marin Ski Club, were making tracks down the mountain, in soft fluffy stuff that looked like smoke in big rooster tails. This was in addition to the big show which the Army staged. Dick Durrance, famous Olympic skier and first winner of the Sun Valley Harriman Cup, is here directing a film for the Army on avalanche safety.

Just to prove how safe it is, they blasted away at the high mountains across the valley to trigger controlled avanlanches which swept down impressively at tremendous speeds. It is better to shoot down avalanches before they get too big and out of control.

ALTA IS MOST comparable to an Alpine high country valley, with tremendously rugged mountains on every side. The road from Salt Lake City snakes up the canyon in just 26 miles, but it could be 260, for the complete change from city to cold white wonderland temperature is from zero at breakfast to 10 degrees at noon. But the bright high altitude sunshine and active skiing keeps us warm.

Alto Lodge, the first here, was built in 1940, and now there are two more: the Rustler, and the Gold Miner's Daughter. All are American plan, and Alta Lodge is famous for its food as well as good skiing.

It couldn't be more convenient. We schuss down to the chairlift from the front door, and a handy rope tow pulls us up to the lodge for lunch and dinner. Sandi Masson and aNncy McNally are also making tracks in the deep powder. They and Charlie Masson joined the group this week.

MORE NOTES on Sun Valley: To warm up after skiing, almost everyone jumps into a swimsuit and into the hot pool. It is outdoors, and often a relaxing bather will be up to his neck in hot water, with a snow cap on his head. Hard to believe, unless you have tried it.

Pretty movie star, Janet Leigh was one of the scenic attractions on the hill at Sun Valley, and Walt Stevens tied with a ski instructor in rescuing her from a fast, unplanned slide down the hill after a fall. Norma Shearer was also on the lift line, looking just as attractive as when she and Sun Valley were both younger.

C. B. DE SCOTT Watterworth has been making movies of Marin Ski Club members at Sun Valley and Alta. The films will be shown in color at a March meeting. Next regular meeting is Wednesday, 8 p.m., at Sam's Anchor Cafe, Tiburon. Guests are welcome, and interested skiers are invited.

The touring group will return to Marin County this weekend. Itt's been fun, and we hate to leave Alta's great powder snow, but there's good snow, too, in the Sierras.

NFL Still Won't Play With AFL

By BOB MYERS

PALM DESERT (AP)—Football fans need not expect in the immediate future to see a title game between the champions of the National and the American Football Leagues.

It would take a revision of the NFL Constitution to sanction an NFL-AFL championship game, along with AFL blessing of course.

Approval of an exhibition game would require a yes vote by all 14 owners of the NFL, who generally can't agree on anything — not even the color of the jerseys their teams will wear at home and on the road.

"As far as I am concerned," said NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, "I would not favor an exhibition game between the National and American Leagues."

Rozelle made his comment as the league resumed its winter meeting and after his position seemingly was distorted by his answer to a question about the league's policy involving non-league exhibitions.

The constitution, said Rozelle for clarification, does not prohibit a pre-season game with the AFL.

Nor does it prohibit, it was pointed out, exhibitions with the Pakistanian Blue Rifles, a Canadian Football League team nor, the Eagle Rock, Calif., Rhinos.

The league rule says simply that all 14 clubs must agree on a pre-season schedule.

Rozelle made it obvious his league has full scheduled of preseason games and is not interested in outside commitments, including any AFL games.

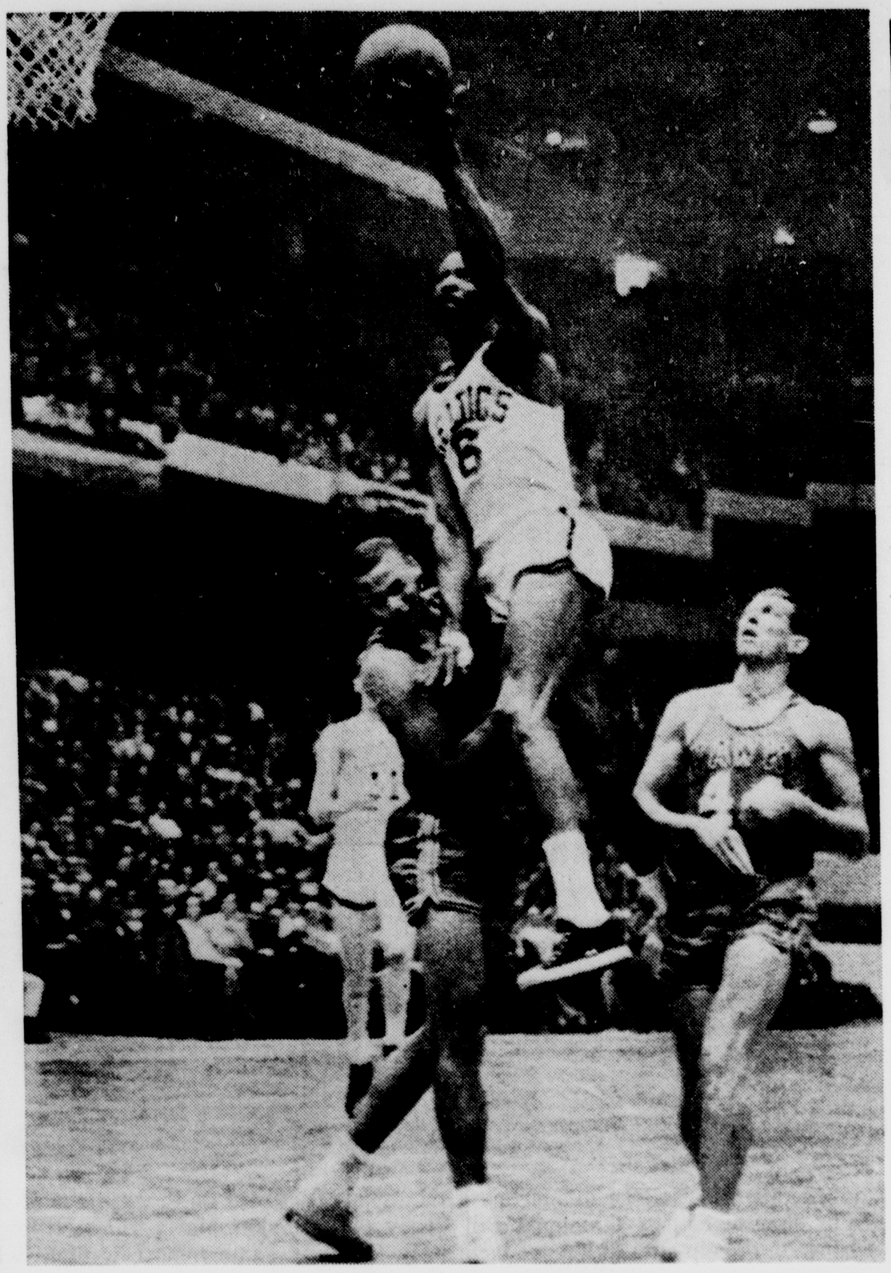

One owner, Arthur B. Modell of the champion Cleveland Browns, was even more pointed. He said his club is not interested in associating in any way with the other league — games, common craft, you name it.

"As far as Cleveland is concerned, we are completely happy with the caliber of football in our league, the public support and our television contract," Modell said.

Owner-Coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears said earlier this week that a championship game between the two leagues might be envisioned "in a few years" but the old Papa Bear is a resolute NFL man.

How many share all of his views has yet to be determined.

Speaking of the color of the jerseys, the league reached one of its less momentous decisions of the week-long meeting. The home club will again have the privilege of deciding the color, dark or light for the home team and the opposite for the visiting club.

THANKS FOR THE LIFT

Celtics superstar Bill Russell (center) appears to be getting a lift from Hawks' Zelmo Beatty (left) as Jeff Mullins looks on. It was during their National Basketball Assn. game last night in Boston. Russell canned the two points, helping the Celtics defeat the Hawks, 121-114. It's just a matter of days before the Celtics again clinch the eastern division title of the NBA. (UPI Telephoto)

Senate Launches Yank-CBS Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators take a long look today at the purchase of the New York Yankees by Columbia Broadcasting System and what it may mean to the future of baseball and other professional sports.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said in a prepared opening statement that the deal last year killed all chances for passage of legislation to exempt certain vital practices of professional sports from antitrust laws.

First witnesses before the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, which Hart heads, were Yankee President, Dan Topping CBS president Frank Stanton, and two other top CBS executives.

The hearings continue tomorrow and again next Tuesday and Wednesday. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick and American League President Joe Cronin are to appear tomorrow.

Hart said the legislation had cleared his subcommittee and the parent Judiciary Committee last year and "I was hopeful of passage."

But he added "then the CBS-Yankee acquisition occurred. In my opinion, it killed any hopes of passage of the legislation at the last session of Congress.

"The opposition to the bill triggered by the acquisition was, I feel, to some extent unjustified. Indeed, if this business transaction does have anti-competitive effects the possibility of a challenge of its legality would be increased if baseball were in fact under the antitrust laws."

In effect, the measure would extend to all sports the exemption for key activities from antitrust laws and place baseball, which now is exempt by court decision from antitrust regulation, on the same basis with other sports.

In general, Hart said, the subcommittee will study:

The potential effects of the $11.2 million Yankee-CBS deal on competition in organized baseball, primarily in the American League.

Possible effects on baseball as a whole.

Whether CBS would have an unfair advantage over other radio-television networks by virtue of its seat at baseball management meetings where contracts are approved for broadcasting major league games.

As of now, Hart said, "baseball by court decision enjoys a preferred status based on total exemption from the reach of the antitrust laws while football, hockey and basketball must operate within its confines."

The subcommittee is studying, in addition to pending legislation, whether any new laws are needed to protect public interest in professional sports activities.

2-Out-Of-3 Playoff Urged By NFL Assn.

BALTIMORE (AP)—The National Football League Players' Association has submitted a lengthy list of requests and suggestions, most of them dealing with the pension fund, to the league commissioner and club owners.

Ordell Braase, Baltimore Colt defensive end who is president of the players' organization, said today the group requested that 50 per cent of the radio-television receipts from the championship playoff be designated for the player benefit plan.

The players also recommended a best two-out-of-three series to determine the championship, Braase said. He said the money this would bring in would mean that the age at which players start collecting a pension could be lowered from 65 to "possibly 55."

The association also reiterated its request for two active players to be placed on the committee which administers the pension fund. Braase said the players "would welcome equal representation by the owners on such a committee.

Braase said the players also want other revenue, such as from the College All-Star game and player endorsements, to be placed in the pension fund.

The players also asked that negotiations for player endorsements be turned back to their association.

"We have run into difficulty and misunderstanding, as far as NFL properties is concerned," Braase said. He said this is a result of the commissioner (Peter Rozelle), who now does the endorsement negotiating, being "closely tied" to NFL properties, which handles advertising and similar matters.

NCAA-AAU Plan New Truce Talk

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association and Amateur Athletic Union have agreed to meet again soon in an effort to settle their three-year dispute over control of amateur sports in the United States.

The two organizations met yesterday — NCAA President Everett D. Barnes of Colgate and AAU President Clifford T. Buck of Denver each headed three-man delegations — and issued a terse, two-paragraph statement after the conference broke up.

The statement said:

"At the invitation of the president of the NCAA pursuant to a resolution of the NCAA convention, there was a meeting of the representatives of the AAU, the NCAA and the U.S. Track and Field Federation.

The track federation is sponsored by the NCAA.

Both Barnes and Buck made it clear that they did not intend to go beyond the brief statement.

Indications were, however, that the next meeting would be held within 30 days.

Stormvogel Still Maintains Lead In Yacht Race

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The Dutch ketch Stormvogel clung to its lead today as the Buenos Aires-to-Rio de Janeiro yacht race moved up Brazil's southern coast.

Stormvogel, scratch boat in the fleet, must finish far in front of the other boats to win the race on a corrected time. At last report, the Dutch vessel was some 30 miles ahead of Fortuna, an Argentine naval yacht which had closed the gap considerably.

Rio Yacht Club reports did not give the position of other entries but another Argentine yacht, Fjord V, apparently was third followed by the top U.S. entry, Ondine, owned by Sumner A. Long, Larchmont, N. Y.

Warriors To Play Tonight

OAKLAND (AP) — Some considered Connie Dierking just the throw-in of the trade that sent Wilt Chamberlain from San Francisco to the Philadelphia 76ers.

But now the 6-foot-9 blond from Cincinnati has taken on a measure of importance as the San Francisco Warriors, with starting center Nate Thurmond suffering from a painful back injury, stumble into the end of a poor National Basketball Association season.

Because of a death in the family, Dierking missed the Warriors' last game, a 114-106 loss to Detroit in San Francisco. This allowed the Pistons to rest a few regulars for part of the contest and forced the Warriors to play Thurmond a full 48 minutes.

Dierking is expected back for tonight's game against Detroit at Oakland Auditorium. The Warriors have beaten the Piston only once in seven games this season.

Lee Shaffer was the big prize in the San Francisco trade to Philadelphia, but probably won't report until next season, if then. Backcourt man Paul Neumann has played considerably.

Heavies Go Tonight In Richmond

Clark, of San Francisco, has won his last five starts in impressive manner to rank as the favorite over his more experienced foe.

"Jackson will fall in six," says Clark emulating Cassius Clay.

The sergeant promptly halved the prediction with his declaration, "this cocky kid has got to be put in his place. I'll have to put him away in three."

Originally from Salt Lake City, Jackson has been fighting professionally the past 17 years while in the service. Last September in Italy, he lost a disputed verdict to Franco de Piccoli. In the first round, says Jackson, he landed two rights to the head and cut Piccoli's eye.

Jockey Starts 5-Day Suspension

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Jockey Eddie Burns begins a five-day suspension tomorrow on the accusation of Santa Anita stewards that he was guilty of careless riding in the eighth race last Tuesday.

The stewards, who made their ruling yesterday, said Burns caused interference going into the first turn while aboard Loukahl.

Gun Bow Must Pack 131 Pounds In 'Cap

ARCADIA (AP)—Gun Bow, the future book favorite for the Santa Anita Handicap, will have to pack 131 pounds if he goes in the $145,000-guaranteed feature.

The high weight evidently resulted from the 5-year-old speedster's victory in last week's San Antonio Handicap at Santa Anita. He carried 129 pounds and was making his first start of the meeting.

If Gun Bow can win the Santa Anita 'Cap, he will be the first to capture the rich prize with more than 130 pounds aboard. Last year he drew an impost of 130 but lost.

In the San Antonio, Candy Spots from the Rex C. Ellsworth stable weighed in at 127 and finished second. Candy Spots will again carry 127 Feb. 27 over the mile and one-quareer.

Trainer Eddie Neloy and the Gedney Farm have until Feb. 26 to decide whether they want to race Gun Bow at 131 pounds. But the concensus among those who know the horse was that he won't be scratched.

Other weights for the Santa Anita 'Cap:

At 114 are Close By, George Royal, Or Et Argent and Real Good Deal, with Doc Jocoy, Hokum Pokum, Mangayte, Mustard Plaster, Standard and Top Gallant II all getting in at 113.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

STEVENS

Let's start today's column by congratulating a rugged individualist, J. D. Ricketts of San Rafael. According to Dick Augento of the Canal Yacht Service in San Rafael, our hero, Sir Ricketts, disdained the use of a boat. He did his fishing from the shore of Paradise Cove, using the old favorite, sardine, for bait. Sir Ricketts hooked, played and landed a sturgeon weighing a full 98 pounds, and measuring 73 inches.

There was a time, and not so long ago, when the catching of a sturgeon was a laudable feat. The few "accidents" were hailed as something far from the usual. But today, the catching of a sturgeon hardly raises an eyebrow, unless it is of great size. I queried an oldtimer on the subject: "How come?" I asked. He shrugged. "Guess they've just learned how," he opined. That's probably correct.

AND THAT reminds me of a phone call recently from Mel Topanze of South County. Mel is a dedicated angler who has been experimenting with ways and means of fishing Lake Berryessa for black bass. He claims he now has the answer. He related a trip to the lake on Monday at Berryessa. He had with him "Windy" Conroy. The pair limited out with blackies to 5 pounds. Mel was using a Rebel Lure (4½ inches), and a long (8½ foot) whippy rod, which combination Mel claims is what he has been using for the past several trips.

Mel and his friend went out of the Putah Creek Marina, crossed the lake to fish the "points" with success. Mel stressed the need for a long, limber rod (I think Mel uses a Shakespeare "Wonder Rod") and a six-pound monofilament line. He insists that the black bass are active from around noon to 3 p.m. He doesn't troll any more as he has found that it is far more successful to cast from his boat. "Tell them to make a long cast, and take a quick turn of your reel handle to give the Rebel lure a chance to begin his dance. I retrieve at moderate speed.

I GOT FROM Mel's report that one angler displayed a nice trout that was taken from the upper part of Putah Creek. Mel will scout and fish that area this weekend and will report to me — I hope.

The hopefuls who tried for salmon outside didn't fare very well. In fact — between high wind and rough water some of the salmon skippers cancelled the trip, and those who toughed it out did practically no good for themselves. However, that doesn't prove a thing except that the fishermen who failed to get aboard a boat were lucky. If history repeats itself, the Johnnys-come-lately will prosper.

Russ Plan Rebuilding Program For Track

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— The Russians expect to unveil some track and field newcomers this year in a rebuilding program aimed at the 1968 Olympic games in Mexico City.

Gabriel Korobkov, coach of the Russian national teams the past 10 years, leaves no doubt his nation aims at a comeback after a disappointing showing at Tokyo last year.

"I think we'll have a lot of new people competing this year," he told a news conference yesterday. Perhaps they will not be so experienced, but they will gain the experience."

Korobkov and six of the more established Russian stars are currently in the United States for competition in a series of indoor meets, including the Golden Gate Invitational on Feb. 26.

Asked if the disappointing showing, following successes in the 1960 games, acted as a spur, Korobkov answered, "If you always win you don't want to work to be better. If you lose you want to do better. You were not so good in Rome (1960) and you came back."

Do you think the Russians will come back in Mexico City?

"Not maybe, but we will, I hope," replied the veteran coach. He said a group of Russian athletes and coaches expect to be in Mexico City this October to compete and also to study climate conditions in the high altitude there.

Asked whom he considered the greatest Russian track athlete of all time, Korobkov named Vladimir Kuts, the distance runner. He thought decathlon star Rafer Johnson was the greatest American he had seen and New Zealand's Peter Snell the best now in competition.

$150,000 Fire At Dodge Ridge

DODGE RIDGE, Calif. (UPI) —A severed propane line caused a $150,000 fire at the ski resort here yesterday, destroying the first section of a new lodge along with the ski shop and rental equipment.

General manager Earl Purdy said that the blaze would not interfere with weekend operations. The fire started when two workmen accidentally sliced through a line adjacent to the building. The only injuries were minor burns suffered by one of the workmen.

DeBisschop Honored By Rod-Gun Club

Bernard L. (Barney) DeBisschop, long time wheelhorse of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, has been named as the organization's "Conservationist of the Year."

DeBisschop was honored by the 2,500-member organization, one of the state's largest sportsmen's clubs, for his efforts in instituting a conservation education program in the Marin County public schools, and for developing a youth program which led to stream clearance work on Papermill Creek, a major spawning ground for steelhead and silver salmon in the county.

DeBisschop has been a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club for 14 years, is a past president of the organization, is current chairman of the Aquatic Resources Committee, is a past president of the Tyee Club, and has served as a delegate to the Sportsmens Council of the Redwood Empire and the California Wildlife Federation.

Barney also received a Conservationist of the Year award from the Tyee Club. That presentation was made last Saturday.

ROSE MARIE REID uses Lycra taffeta—with its built-in touch system of control—to shape a flattering swim sheath. Classic in basic concept. "Lynda" takes off to higher fashion ground with waist-whittling cummerbund, deep V-neckline, and elegant screen-printed colorings of red and regal blue. Fringing the face in regal beauty is the swimcap befitting any queen of the beach.

THE PLAYFUL LOOK

The pampered and playful look of French Riviera bathing beauties is created by Rose Marie Reid with this luster loop bikini called "Fifi." Made of rayon and cotton, the suit reveals its French flavor in a brief molded bra with braid trim and maillot leg. Every French miss realizes the importance of jewelry and so does Rose Marie Reid's Beach a'dashery collection. Promising to be the "hottest" item on the beach this season is the matte finish lacquered wooden jewelry.

THE CREDO THAT A swimsuit should be something more than a suit to swim in was never more dramatically expressed than in this bit of sheer beach witchery appropriately called "Mystique." Frankly, a feminine foible of peek-a-boo jeweled lace, topping maillet pant of Antron jersey. And, although it swims, no one will argue with the fact that it's heavily weighted on the side of beach sigh-chology.

BY REASONING

Growing Up Is The Making Of Mistakes

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

The word guidance is well chosen in that students should be guided, not directed. They should be helped in making a choice but the choice should not be made for, them.

PART OF living and growing up is the making of mistakes. We all learn from our errors. Pre-school children learn not to touch fire after they have been burned. On the other hand, sometimes they learn by reasoning. That is, they are able to make the correct choice because they realize the consequences of the wrong choice without making it. An extreme example would be jumping from a 10-story building. Obviously they would get seriously hurt or be killed.

THE GUIDANCE counselor can be the difference between success and failure of a student. What are some of the ways in which a counsellor can be helpful?

Should a student be in a general, commercial, vocational or college preparatory program? The counsellor can help the student design a program and provide opportunities which are realistic and yet not limit his ambitions. The particular courses which are taken can be chosen so as to provide success rather than frustration and failure. As an example a student in a general program can also take elective courses which will make him eligible for college entrance.

High school students may develop social problems. The counsellor can be an excellent sounding board and advisor in helping the students arrive at solutions. Teen-agers often need to know that their particular problem is important but not unusual. It is reassuring to know that others have had similar difficulties and have been able to find answers.

A MOST important area of operations for the guidance counsellor is that of assisting with college admissions. This can be a difficult task for students who don't know how to go about it. Colleges vary in specialities, admission requirements, and size. A student should choose a college which is realistic and proper for his personality, interests, and needs. If he does this his chances of acceptance and success are much greater. The counselor is familiar with many colleges and can be most helpful in suggesting appropriate choices.

ALL IN ALL, the guidance counselor has a very important part in a high school program. He is the person who can help each individual student to be a successful graduate and adult.

New Guide To Dress Aimed At Woman Who Is Overweight

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lucky is the woman with the perfect figure and no size problem. She's also a rarity, which is the reason for a new guide to dress aimed primarily for the woman who weighs a few pounds too many.

Go on a diet, yes, if the doctor advises it and you have the will power. In the meantime, make an asset out of an ample figure by illusion. The slim look can be achieved in great degree by following certain guiding principles — anything tight accentuates the positive; vertical lines usually are more slenderizing than horizontal ones; shoes of a neutral shade elongate the leg and divert attention from heaviness at ankle or calf; hemlines vary according to figure proportions, but should cover the knees.

These are some of the tips included in "Fashion Secrets To Look Slimmer," published by a national chain of some 100 stores.

LOOKING THINNER

Put together by the stores' fashion director, Mary Blake, the booklet is a "no" and "yes" guide on what to wear.

On fabrics for instance, "no" to very shiny textures, heavy tweeds, heavy mohairs and wool, "yes" to chiffon, velvet, jersey, knit, silk, lace, fine wools, crepe, corduroy, or any other soft and supple fabric.

"No," says the booklet, to bold vertical stripes, very bright prints, extra-large prints, minute prints, tiny polka dots, and "yes" to muted stripes or prints, medium-size prints, vertical muted color panels.

In colors, the expert advised "no" to separates or contrasting brights, such as red and yellow, and "yes" to any dark color, muted shades of any color, simple silhouettes in bright shades, such as royal, cranberry or emerald.

"No," it advised to tight bodices, short waist-high jackets, narrow double-breasted boleros, and "yes" to surplice bodices, some blousons, and diagonal lines across the bosom.

Below the waist, "no," to wide pleating, dirndl, or tightly clinging, and "yes" to the A-line silhouette and straight hanging skirts.

The guide turned thumbs down on wide or beaded and fancy belts, gave an okay to the no-belt silhouette, to narrow belts of the same color and fabric as the dress, and to tucks instead of a belt to indicate a waistline.

SLEEVES AND POCKETS

In sleeves, it said "no" to the sleeveless, to the puff, to the set-in, and "yes" to long sleeves, three-quarter, cap, tapered short, and some raglan.

"No," it decreed to large patch pockets located at bust or hip, "yes" to hidden or slanted pockets. Negative also on adding ornamentation at "trouble spots" on the figure, such as a wide ruffle around the low neckline of an already plump front, or high round turtle necks; "yes" for oval, V-shaped, and jewel necklines. Don't wear large, horizontal bows at the chin-line; instead, use small bows, below the collar.

"No," it said, to tight foundations, and "yes" to one piece garments, a well-fitted girdle.

The guide rejected chokers, large round earrings, or bulky pieces of jewelry of any kind at the neck or wrist. It favored longish necklaces, drop or contour earrings, and delicate strands of pearls.

It recommended shaped, medium-height heels over spikes, unornamented footwear, and medium, flesh-toned or dark hose over patterned or very pale shades.

As for sports clothes, out with tight slacks, short shorts, bulky sweaters, large sunglasses, and man-tailored shirts worn outside the slacks or skirts. Instead, select play dresses, skirts, flat knit sweaters, and culottes.

Novato Group To Hold Dance

A semi-formal dinner dance will be sponsored by the Novato High School Parent-Faculty Club at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base on Feb. 27.

The buffet dinner at 8 p.m. will be followed by dancing.

Mrs. Robert D. Money is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Chester Hibbert as co-chairman. The executive board members of the parent-faculty club are reservations chairmen.

Good Medicine

BESTOWING HONORS

The moon is approaching its last phase. The morning star is Mars. The evening star is Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1930, the planet Pluto was discovered by an astronomer working at the Lowell Observatory in Flagstaff, Ariz.

In 1953, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnez were awarded the most costly single television contract to that date — eight-million dollars.

In 1964, President Leon M'Ba of the west African nation of Gabon was overthrown in a bloodless coup. He was later restored to power with the help of French troops.

A Thought for the Day—Jefferson Davis said in his inaugural address: "All we ask is to be let alone."

WINNING BRIDGE

Gross Errors In Play Spoil Bidding Match

When the Traditionalists played the Scientists a month ago, in a match sponsored by the Bridge World Magazine, bridge fans held their breath.

Perhaps we'd find out whether natural bidding is better than "scientific" bidding. What we actually found out was that the bigger they are the harder they fall. The match was spoiled by silly errors in play, as in the hand shown today.

Opening lead — ♣ 5

South's shutout bid of three hearts worked well since it stopped East-West from bidding and making game in notrump. Nothing good could be said about the play of the cards.

OPENING LEAD

West made a smart-Alecky opening lead, perhaps hoping that South would have a club guess and guess it wrong. As it happened, there was no guess, and East won the first trick without a contest.

East couldn't imagine why his partner had picked such an unusual lead but finally returned the deuce of spades on the assumption that a void in spades was the only sensible reason.

This "gave" South A-J-7 of spades for his shutout bid in hearts, but East was willing to believe that South had made a silly bid.

JUST AS BRILLIANT

West was just as brilliant as his partner. He was sure the deuce of spades was a singleton, so he took the ace of spades and returned the jack of spades.

It was South's turn to be brilliant. He won the spade return with dummy's king to get rid of the jack of clubs.

Then he ruffed a club, cashed the top hearts, and gave up a heart. He still had to lose two diamonds, so was down one.

SOUTH BLUNDERS

South blundered when he took the king of spades. That trick couldn't run away. He should ruff the spade return, cash the top trumps and give up a trump.

The opponents can take their club trick, but South gets to dummy with the ace of diamonds in time to discard two diamonds on the good spades.

DAILY QUESTION

♠ A J
♥ Q 4 2
♦ K J 9 6 4
♣ A 6 5

What do you say?

Answer: The book bid is one diamond, but most experts would prefer a bid of one notrump even though the hand is 1 point light.

The length in diamonds makes up for that missing point, and the opening bid of one notrump describes the strength and distribution of the hand all at once.

Stanford Dean Quits After Coed Charges

STANFORD (AP) — A second Stanford University women's dean has resigned in the wake of student charges that some deans used undue influence in disciplinary cases and that one dean believed some young professors used literature in an attempt to seduce coeds.

Miss Bonnie Fitzwater, 41, associate dean of women, yesterday followed by three days the resignation of Miss Lucile Allen, 59, dean of women.

Dean Allen's resignation came Sunday night at the same time a faculty committee submitted to the administration results of an investigation into a copyrighted story in the student newspaper.

The full text of the faculty report was to have been made public but was not. Excerpts exonerating the dean were released, however.

The committee looked into student charges that Dean Allen, among others, tried to pressure members of the student judicial council in the handling of disciplinary cases.

Also at issue was the student allegation that Dean Allen tried without success to enlist coeds to monitor freshman English courses where it was charged she felt some of the young professors used the erotic aspects of literature in an attempt to seduce coeds.

Dean Allen denied the allegation made in the Feb. 4 story. She resigned 10 days later because she said, "no useful purpose could be served by prolonging the controversy."

Miss Fitzwater, who came to Stanford in 1961, said in her letter of resignation that "an unjust and sensational attack by a small group of students has resulted in the abrogation of the rights of officers of the university."

Her resignation, effective at the close of the winter quarter March 19, added:

"While I have considered it a privilege to work within the Stanford community, I now find it impossible to continue within the framework of a policy permitting the course of recent decisions." She did not elaborate.

Talk On College

Dr. Burton C. Hallowell, vice president of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., will speak on the problems of the small Ivy League college next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Sausalito Yacht Club, Sausalito.

New Panel Indicts Convict, Sets Committees For Year

The 1965 Marin County Grand Jury in first session yesterday returned a single criminal indictment and named its committees for the year.

Indicted for illegal possession of a knife at San Quentin Prison was inmate Albert Gilbert Renteria, serving time on a Feb. 5, 1963, conviction in Los Angeles County for first degree robbery.

Public Works—DeWitt, chairman; Arthur R. Nicolaisen, San Anselmo; Kelly; Lipp.

The 19-member grand jury, empaneled Feb. 10 by Presiding Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court, will meet every other Wednesday, alternating 1:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. sessions.

Mrs. Schultz, a former county supervisor, is grand jury secretary.

Anti-Smog Device Tax Break Gains

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— The State Assembly has approved and given the senate a bill giving tax relief to merchants who stocked up on anti-smog devices.

The bill, passed yesterday, would direct assesors to consider the legislature's action in delaying anti-smog device requirements on most used cars when they assess the value of the merchants' stock of devices.

Three Drunken Drivers Fined

Lloyd Milton Conner, 38, Berkeley, was fined $276 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Oct. 17 by Sausalito police on Alexander Street.

Charles Brighton Brooks, 72, of 7 Maple Lane, San Anselmo, was fined $139 for drunken driving. He was arrested by San Anselmo police on Bridge Street last Jan. 17.

Fine of $166 was paid by Bonner Gill Lane, 61, of 105 Chester Avenue, Fairfax, for drunken driving on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Fairfax last Sunday. Fairfax police made the arrest.

Everyone Keeps Saying, "Hard Work Won't Hurt You." But Why Risk It?

There's no work to be done on this beauty either inside or out!
It has been painted and decorated with taste and imagination. The landscaping is for looking, not working.
Even the school, shopping center and transportation chose their locations with your convenience in mind.
The designer, filled with the milk of human kindness said, "I must design this 3-bedroom, 2-fireplace, family room home to please the most particular home owner," and succeeded.
The builder, a dedicated man, gathered together a group of craftsmen, and after they had toiled, left with uplifted heart and as tears of joy coursed down his cheeks was heard to say, "Here is truly a product of integrity and skill."
The present owner has been transferred out of the county and unable to take his home with him will permit you to acquire his joy of ownership for just $35,750. Exclusive with, home BUYERS in Southern Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County by a ratio of more than 2 to 1

(than from San Francisco)

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent - Journal, covering 2 out of every 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Car Clouter Gets Doctor's Kit, Narcotics

Dr. Donald C. Barbour of 12 Kentdale Lane, Kentfield, told San Rafael police Tuesday night that someone stole a $250 doctor's bag containing narcotics from his locked car, parked at 710 C Street, Tuesday.

Police said the bag contained vials of liquid morphine and Demerol, plus bottles with Demerol tablets and Pentobarbital capsules, as well as syringes, doctor's tools and other medications. Also in the bag was a pad of triplicate narcotics prescription pads.

Also under investigation today was theft of a $1,000 fur piece and two $15 transistor radios from the home of Mrs. Florence E. Milonas of 6 Locksley Lane.

Mary F. Baxter of San Francisco told police Tuesday someone stole a $40 brief case from her locked car parked on C Street between Third and Fourth streets from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Robert L. Leoni of 163 Novato Street, Apt. 1, said someone jacked up his car between 2 and 5 p.m. Tuesday and took two tires off it.

Theft of $11 worth of 18-foot rafters from a building site on Manderly Road was reported by Joseph R. Costamagna, vice president of Edward F. Burgar Construction Co.

Costamagna said his firm also has been plagued by much vandalism, believed the work of children, at the site.

Also reported Tuesday was theft of at least three bottles of oxygen and acetylene gas from Duffy Brothers Garage, 1301 Third Street. Joseph P. Rossi of the firm said he found a chain link fence cut near where such bottles are kept.

Redwood High Judges May Be Elected

Redwood High School student court judges and the head of the "student government" police force would be elected under changes in the school constitution proposed at a student body meeting yesterday.

Head judge of the student court would be elected in schoolwide voting. Two judges from each class would be elected for a year's term, except that freshman judges would be elected each semester.

Court would be held once each week. If a student failed to appear in response to summons, the case would be referred to the faculty.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Patient Must Keep Clean, Dry When Treating This Ailment

VAN DELLEN

Pruritus ani is so annoying that most victims "want relief or I will lose my mind." They are likely to rub or scratch the anal region to such an extent that the ensuing irritation hides the trues cause. When this occurs, a simple routine is suggested to ease distress until diagnosis can be made.

The anal region should be kept clean, dry, and free from local chafing. The folds are subject to maceration caused by perspiration and friction, especially in the obese and those who sweat profusely. The area should be washed after a movement with soft paper tissue or cotton saturated with tap water. Wet toilet paper can be used provided it does not cause friction. The continental commode (bidet) cleansing is ideal for this purpose. Dry the area carefully with a towel or clean, dry cotton.

DRYING AGENTS will be needed when the skin is blistered, broken, or weeping. Tablets such as Temaril control the itching. Within a week, the area becomes more comfortable and the basic cause is determined. In many instances, relief is obtained by following the regimen mentioned previously, especially when moisture and uncleanliness are responsible. The same applies when the area has been abraded by rough toilet tissue or the individual is sensitive to chemicals in this type of tissue. Allergy is suspected when discomfort occurs only after eating certain foods or wearing certain types of underwear. Synthetic fibers do not absorb moisture and rubber girdles increase local perspiration.

PINWORMS ARE a good possibility when itching occurs only during the night. Specific treatment, including surgery, is required when a discharge is present because it usually indicates infection in the anal canal or rectum. The same can be said when a dermatitis is present on the skin between the folds of the buttocks.

Nervousness also is a cause of pruritus ani. This is best treated with relaxants and tranquilizers. Now and then, the area must be deadened with a long-acting anesthetic agent.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on pruritus ani if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CREAM FOR OLDSTERS

H. H. K. writes: I am 77 years old and in the best of health. But my family thinks I use too much milk and cream. Why should I cut them out so long as I feel well?

REPLY

Who is entitled to advise a 77-year-old on diet? Less fat is suggested when the individual is overweight or his blood cholesterol is high.

HIATUS HERNIA

R. F. writes: Can a hiatus hernia strangulate like a hernia in the groin?

REPLY

The ordinary sliding esophageal hernia does not strangulate. This is not true when the upper part of the stomach protrudes through a small opening in the diaphragm (diaphragmatic hernia).

DEAFNESS

D. A. writes: One doctor says otosclerosis is causing my deafness; another says it is due to nerve degeneration. I'm confused.

REPLY

Both may exist, so why not discuss this matter with the physician in whom you have the most confidence?

LOW BLOOD PRESSURE

H. N. writes: Will donating blood make low blood pressure lower?

REPLY

Donating blood may lower tension temporarily in those with high blood pressure but has little or no effect upon those with low blood pressure.

Undersea Pipe May Take Algerian Gas To Europe

By ARTHUR FLETCHER
Worldwide Press Service

UNITED NATIONS — Can Algerian gas be pumped to Europe by pipeline under the Mediterranean? The answer to that question is so valuable — since 90 per cent of Algeria's gas potential is now unutilized — that several private and public companies have invested a total of $15 million is researching it. But so far no one has been willing to take the steeper plunge of investing in a pipeline itself.

It has been assumed that the reluctance lay, in part at least, in the unwillingness of outsiders to risk the embrace of "Algerian socialism." But a U.N. officer concerned with a new two-year study of the pipeline project, approved last month by the Special Fund's Governing Council, denies that politics is involved — "contrary to all that has been reported around the world."

It even appears that if politics was responsible for drying up the interest of investors in Algeria's resources, that is now a thing of the past.

"The new project represents a reconciliation of interests," one official said. "All the studies, regardless of source, are being made available to the U.N. Fifteen million dollars has already been spent by various public, private and mixed bodies in France and Spain on checking out a pipeline route."

The Special Fund's description of the project does not refer to the pipeline but rather to studying "the possibilities of natural gas export." This is intriguing since Algeria already exports methane by the very modern technique of liquefaction at low temperatures for movement by a new type of tanker. The World Bank has underwritten expansion of this trade, most of it to England and France so far.

Furthermore, virtually every newly independent country seizes every possible U.N. forum to object to the "monopolization" by the industrial countries of the processing of raw materials from the developing countries.

But Algeria's new move to sell gas via pipeline to Europe constitutes no backsliding into neo-colonialism, I learned.

Selling gas to Europe would in no way limit the growth in Algeria of industries processing gas and oil into the petrochemical intermediates on which are based the production of plastics, fertilizers, fibres, etc., said a Fund official. Furthermore, petrochemicals are only part of the story.

"The Algerian goal is industrialization, not an overdeveloped petrochemicals industry," a project officer pointed out. "Many industries will be studied. Then, and not until then, will come feasibility studies. Capital is not Algeria's problem; a shortage of suitable investment projects is."

The assumption, of course, is that the successful sale of gas would help underwrite Algeria's industrial expansion. And "substantial quantities of gas can not be sold without the pipeline," I was told. This would remain true no matter how many of the new style tankers were put into service moving liquefied methane.

"The problem we will seek to solve is finding the right place for the pipeline and determining the right kind of line. It all depends on the depth, the pressure, the sea bottom, etc."

The sales periphery of Algerian gas may depend on the outcome of gas discoveries in Holland and exploration now in progress under the North Sea.

Algeria's young foreign minister, Abdullah Bouteflika — at a luncheon with a group of U.N. correspondents — reflected the political mix of the Ben Bella regime which sends arms to Congolese subversives and generally endorses a Sino-Indonesian line, yet still manages to co-exist with Western capitalism.

Hayward Sets High School Quarters Plan

HAYWARD (AP) — Two Hayward high schools will go on the quarter system next fall in a plan to achieve a more diverse curriculum offering students more electives.

The present school day of six 55 - minute classes will be changed to eight or nine 40 to 45 minute periods.

Eventually the quarter system may be extended to year around operation with students attending any three quarters, including the summer session.

The important elements of the program are flexibility and the chance for students to take more electives, William Cunningham, Hayward Unified School district superintendent, said yesterday.

"It's conceivable that a class of superior students could complete a year's course in algebra in two quarters," he said. "The standard class would require three quarters."

The eight or nine period day would allow students to take art, drama, music and other courses in addition to the subjects required for college, said Don Oakes, Hayward High principal.

The district's board of trustees has approved the plan for two of the district's four high schools.

State Junior College Board Plan Fought

President Stephen E. Epler and trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy of College of Marin have started a campaign to block legislation setting up a state board for junior colleges.

Letters signed by the two have been sent to junior college district boards throughout the state, asking for support and warning that setting up a state board could hurt local control of junior colleges.

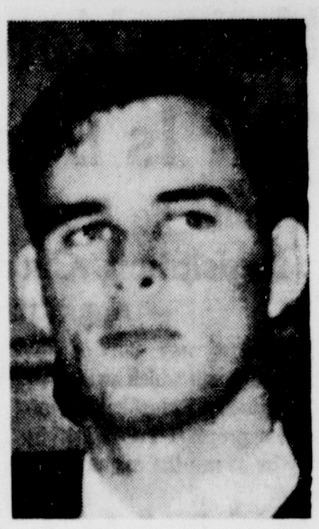

A bill to establish the board has been introduced by Assemblyman M. M. Dymally, D-Los Angeles.

Junior colleges now are administered locally, but with state survaillance and support through the State Board of Education and the State Department of Education.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Networks Planning The New Season

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —A definite trend seems to be shaping up for next television season: It will be even worse than this one, a prospect that would have seemed impossible last September. I won't insult you today with chapter and verse on the coming season — the awful facts will be released officially soon enough. Simply look at what is popular now and prepare for a deluge of imitations.

One of the reasons the very tentative schedules for next season are worse is that a number of fairly worthwhile series are being cancelled. Although changes are always possible in the months ahead, it currently looks as though these shows are through:

"The Defenders," "Perry Mason," "Profiles in Courage," "Slattery's People," Alfred Hitchcock, Jack Paar (he quit), Jack Benny, "Bell Telephone Hour" (unless it returns in a slot earlier than prime time), "Rawhide," Bing Crosby, "International Showtime," "Kentucky Jones," "The Entertainers" (with Carol Burnett), "Hazel" (unless she returns in an altered format), and "FDR," a documentary series.

Other series that seem headed off the air include:

"Tycoon" (with Walter Brennan), "My Living Doll," "That Was The Week That Was," "Karen," "Wagon Train," "Wendy and Me" (with George Burns), "Valentine's Day," "The Rogues," Joey Bishop, "Mr. Novak," "Mr. Ed," "The Doctors and the Nurses," "Mr. Magoo," "On Broadway Tonight," "Hullabaloo," Cara Williams, "For The People," "Many Happy Returns" (with John McGiver) and "The Baileys of Balboa" (with Paul Ford).

Among the apparent returnees are:

"Peyton Place" (which will be expanded from twice to three times a week, and also be joined by several similar series), "Voyage To The Bottom Of The Sea," "No Time For Sergeants," "Ben Casey," "To Tell The Truth," "I've Got A Secret," Lucille Ball, Andy Griffith, Dick Van Dyke (probably in his last season), "The Hollywood Palace," Lawrence Welk, "The King Family," "Gunsmoke," Jackie Gleason, "Flipper," the weekly movies (expanded from three to four), Red Skelton, Andy Williams, "The Fugitive," "Lassie," Walt Disney and "Bonanza."

Also: "Bewitched," "The Munsters," "The Addams Family," "My Three Sons," "Dr. Kildare" (perhaps split up into two weekly half-hours), "The Virginian," "What's My Line?," the Bob Hope theatre, "Shindig," Donna Reed, "Kraft Theatre," "CBS Reports," "The Beverly Hillbillies," Danny Kaye, Ed Sullivan, "Candid Camera," "My Favorite Martian," "Gomer Pyle," "Branded," "Gilligan's Island," "Daniel Boone," "The Farmer's Daughter," and "12 O'Clock High."

Dixie-San Rafael Unity Vote Way Out Is Described

Could Be Freed By Special Legislation, Charter Change

By RICHARD LYTTLE

The best way out of the legal labyrinth which swallowed the Dixie-San Rafael school unification proposal Tuesday night may be to use the axe of legislation.

Elizabeth Palmer, a deputy state attorney general specializing on education law, said today the unification issue could be freed through special legislation.

She said school districts set up under city charters are providing a "stumbling block" for unification throughout the state, and there is no single rule that can be used for guidance.

Since charters differ, opinions on individual cases differ.

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization recommended that Dixie and San Rafael districts unify with a seven-man governing board. However, the San Rafael city charter, which sets the legal foundation for city schools, says a five-member board shall govern.

When this conflict was mentioned to the boards of San Rafael and Dixie in a joint meeting Tuesday night, they agreed to hold off calling a unification election until a formal opinion can be prepared by the attorney general's office.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney estimated Tuesday that the formal ruling might be six to eight months in preparation.

Mrs. Palmer is convinced that the quickest solution is to get permissive legislation from Sacramento. "The legislature is in session now," she observed.

Another solution would be to amend the city charter. She said this was done on the recommendation of the attorney general's office by voters in Alhambra.

The amendment specifying the number on the governing board was voted to take effect the same day unification will take effect.

Although she has not studied San Rafael's charter, Mrs. Palmer said she thought it similar to Alhambra's.

There is still time to put an amendment proposition on the ballot for San Rafael's city election April 12. The deadline for propositions is March 3 and the city council has scheduled discussion of ballot propositions for its March 1 meeting.

Nobody mentioned charter amendment at the joint meeting of the two boards Tuesday. Maloney said new legislation could solve the problem, but no one pursued that idea.

Auto Smashes Tree After Brakes Fail

Mrs. Marion D. Orlando, 55, of 17 Nelson Avenue, Mill Valley, suffered facial cuts Tuesday when the car she was driving smashed into a tree after a brake failure on a steep hill.

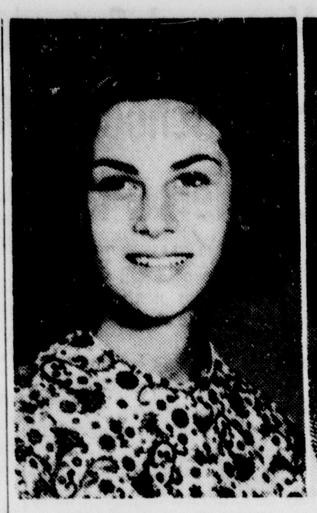

Mrs. Orlando was driving west on Corte Patenico in Greenbrae at 10 a.m. when the power brakes failed. Ahead of her was the dead end of the street with a steep slope below.

She told California highway patrolmen that she chose to hit the oak tree to stop the car. The auto crossed a rock garden at 40 Corte Patenico, hit a wooden planter box and came to a stop against the tree in the yard.

Mrs. Orlando was treated at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

Completes Course

Pvt. Carl D. Polacchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose P. Polacchi, 14 Thalia Street, Mill Valley, has completed a 19-week single engine single rotor helicopter repair course at the Army Transportation School, Fort Eustis, Va.

WANTS IT LEGAL

Rancher Asks Permit For Killing Eagle

Point Reyes Station rancher Leroy Martinelli wants to shoot another eagle.

But this time he will go hunting well armed with legal protection or not at all.

Yesterday he asked federal permission to kill an eagle that has continued to attack his sheep. Martinelli faces federal prosecution for killing a bald eagle and golden eagle Jan. 25 and 26.

He shot them after they had reportedly killed six lambs. A third eagle got away and it reportedly killed a seventh lamb Jan. 28. Martinelli said he found two more dead lambs Friday and an eagle was feeding on one of them.

He filed his request for an eagle killing permit with Jack E. Downs, U.S. game management agent in Sacramento. This is the same man who signed the complaint against Martinelli for shooting the first two eagles.

That complaint is scheduled to be heard in U. S. District Court before Judge Oliver J. Carter on March 4.
